Misericordia Players to perform 'Rumors'

College Misericordia's Walsh Auditorium is the location for the Misericordia Players' production of Neil Simon's comedy, Rumors. Show times are Thursday and Friday, Nov. 15 and 16 at 8 p.m. and Saturday, Nov. 17 at 2 p.m. General admission is $5. Rumors takes a look at what happens when the truth is not told. Four couples are on their way to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their friends, the deputy mayor and his wife. When the first couple arrives, they find that their host, Charley, has shot himself, and that his wife, Myra, is missing. Charley's lawyer, Ken Gorman, decides that it is best if the other couples don't find out, but as more guests begin to arrive, it becomes harder and harder to continue with his cover-up. As the party continues, stories get mixed and no one can keep track of who knows what, providing the audience with a comical show that will keep the laughs rolling. The Misericordia Players are under the direction of Dallas resident, Don Hopkins. Members of the Misericordia Players include cast members Mary Smee, Harvey's Lake, and Michael White, Harvey's Lake. Angela Kelly, Dallas, is public relations chairperson, and the stage crew includes Heather Jones, Dallas, prop chief. This play contains adult language and may not be suitable for all audiences. For more information, call 674-6719. Pictured from left; row 1: Colleen Amundson, Luis Martinez, and Amy Fitzsimmons. Row 2: Allison Potsko, Paul Clark, Michael White, Russ Hastings, and Mary Smee.
