

Community Photo Album

Making sweet holiday music at Wycallis Elementary

Wycallis Elementary School students performed the annual holiday concert last week for family and friends of the school. We sneaked into the dress rehearsal, which took place before the assembled student body, to snap a few photos of the performers.

POST PHOTOS/JIM PHILLIPS

The student audience kept time with the performers.

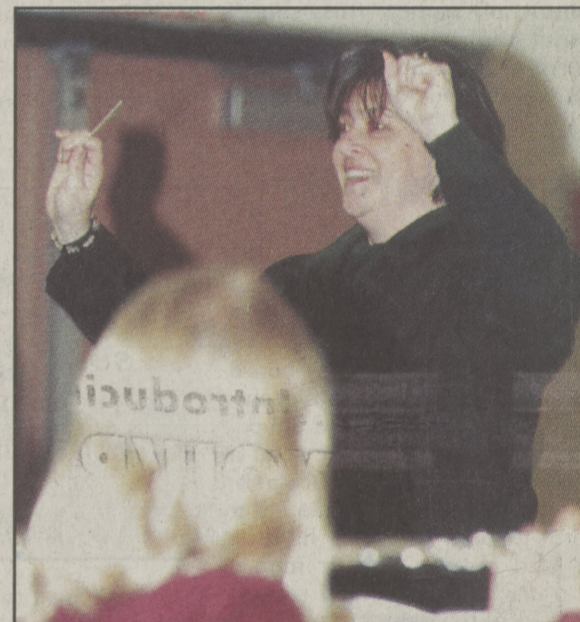

Frosty the Snowman made an impromptu appearance, played by Jeremy Kaleta.

Dave Zurek and Josh Backes provided the rhythm.

Koryn Henry and Rebecca Loefflad joined for a duet.

Debra Pike kept the band members on the same page.

Above, Kayla Turchin kept her gaze fixed on the conductor. At right, Erin Bellas concentrated on her music.

Above, Kayla Turchin, Jill Jackson and Alicia Sebastian worked on a song. At left, enjoying the show, from left: Kera London, William Spare and Christopher Milligan, all in the afternoon kindergarten.