

Middle School students complete food drive

The Dallas Middle School Student Council, under the direction of Ms. Norine Amesbury, recently concluded a successful food drive to benefit the Back Mountain Food Bank. The school-wide collection competition resulted in record donations being turned over to the food bank.

Homerooms 104, 203 and 211 will each receive a pizza party as a reward for their effort on behalf of the area's needy.

The members of the student council wish to thank the people of the Back Mountain for their continuing support for this worthwhile activity.

Sem Lower School visitation scheduled

Wyoming Seminary Lower School in Forty Fort, for children in grades pre-kindergarten age 3 through eighth grade, is offering several dates in January and February for families interested in visiting and applying to the school for the 2002-2003 academic year.

The Lower School, with an enrollment of about 430 students, offers a student/teacher ratio of 8:1 and an average class size of 13 students. The school also provides a 10,000-volume library, art studio, science labs and computer labs, a wide variety of sports, a state-of-the-art auditorium and other facilities.

Students who will be entering pre-kindergarten, kindergarten or first grade in fall, 2002 are invited to call the Admission Office at 718-6610 to schedule an appointment for their child on Saturday, Jan. 19 or Saturday, Feb. 2. Appointments will be scheduled between 9 a.m. and 12 noon and will take about 45 minutes.

College applications due Jan. 15

Seniors applying to college are reminded that the application deadline for regular decision at most colleges is January 15. The Dallas High School Guidance Office reminds students if applications have not yet been turned into the Guidance Office, please do so now.
