Back Mountain residents in Music Box revue

Jonathan Wallace, 8, first row third from left, also of Shavertown, is a third grade student at Wycallis Elementary School. Jonathan recently played one of the six students in the Music Box Players' recent production of "Nuncrackers: The Nonsense Christmas Musical." He will be highlighted in various patriotic numbers celebrating the bravery of so many Americans who died for their country in the recent acts of terrorism on America.
