much as it has all season. The Mountaineer bench has come through for McCue countless times, and has given him the opportunity to show some different wrinkles in the line-up.

"Dan Mulhern was not on the team last year, and has been a big addition coming back, and Matt Wilson is only a freshman," said McCue. "We can have many different variations on the floor at a given time. There are not many teams in the league that can go with an eight-man rotation."

Dallas is not out of the championship hunt, and only needs to look to the rafters in the Dallas High School gymnasium to see where they stand. Dallas has won its only District II title in 1985 and McCue thinks this year's team stands its best chance to make it two.

"All I do is point to the banner," said McCue. "These kids are seniors; what else do they have to work for? Nothing would be better than to be able to walk into the gym and say, 'I put one of (these banners) up here.'"
