KINGSTON TOWNSHIP PROTEST TO MULTIPLE HOUSING REZONING

A group of some 50 Kingston township residents voiced their opposition to a proposed rezoning of approximately 23 acres of land in the township for the construction of multiple housing. Kingston Township Planning Commission with Vice Chairman Richard Morgan presiding, held the public hearing in the municipal building.

The memory of the late John Gould Ruggles Sr. of Dallas was honored when the John G. Ruggles Sr. Memorial Scoreboard was dedicated in Wyoming Seminary's gymnasium.

After 10 years as a Kingston Township officer, Paul Sabol began to assume duties as the new Chief of Police after the death of Chief Herbert Updyke. Chief Sabol had been active in community affairs for a number of years.

JACKSON FIRE COMPANY READY FOR 33RD YEAR

About 75 persons attended the joint installation of officers dinner at the Jackson Township Fire Hall when officers of the Jackson Township Volunteer Firemen, its Ladies Auxiliary, and the Jackson Township Volunteer Ambulance Corps were installed. Dennis Downing, son of the late Dennis Downing, sr., who was the first fire chief of the Jackson Township volunteer Fire Company in the late 1940's served as master of ceremonies.

Lake-Lehman Lady Knights Tracy Turner scored her 1,000 point in the early part of a Knights-GAR game. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ted Kytte.

Back Mountain Wrestling Club wrestlers did well in the second annual Highesville Spartan Wrestling Tournament. Eighteen wrestlers from the Back Mountain entered the competition and 14 boys brought home awards.

Exhibition to include local artists

Several local members of a statewide plein air art group will be among approximately 40 artists to exhibit their produced-on-location artwork at the Bloomsburg gallery, the historic "Barn at Boone's Dam."

The exhibit of the artwork is entitled, "Pennsylvania En Plein Air Paints Pennsylvania." It will include drawings and painting produced in a variety of media. Subjects include: many of the barns, valleys and vistas that have attracted artists to Pennsylvania scenes for centuries. Plein air artists work outside on location, in all kinds of weather, temperature and social conditions.

The juried exhibit will include works by: Lowry Puckey, Dallas; Sue Hand, Dallas; Diane Levandoski, Dallas; Liz Plashinski, Shavertown, Ann Searfoss, Carverton; Laura Vodzak, Dallas.

The public is invited to attend an opening reception from 7-9 p.m. on February 1st to view the exhibit and meet the artists and special guests and tour the historic barn which once belonged to internationally recognized artist David Armstrong. The exhibit will continue through March 30th. Contact Kate at the gallery at 784-9483 or Sue Hand at 675-5094 for additional information.

Lehman's Boris is semifinalist for scholarship

Lake-Lehman senior Lindsay Boris has been named one of 10 nationwide semi-finalists in the 2001-02 Coca-Cola Scholars Program.

Students are selected to advance to this next phase based on the level of excellence, leadership and achievement demonstrated in school and community activities. This year marks the fourteenth year Coca-Cola will be awarding these scholarships, providing a total of nearly $22 million to assist young scholars nationwide in the pursuit of their educational goals.
