New place for old things

Toby's Creek Antiques, a new group antique shop located in the former Rider's World building in Trucksville, held an open house last weekend to introduce the shop and dealers. Carol Madigan, the manager, says Toby's Creek Antiques has room for up to 90 dealers in the building, along with a cafe and storage. Several dealers are open now. Shown standing in one of the booths, from left: Miriam Randazzo, a dealer; Ron Reed, a dealer; Carol Madigan; Susan and George Stockage, dealers; Bob Madigan.
