Back Mountain dancers featured with Ballet Northeast

A number of Back Mountain residents will appear in Ballet Northeast's annual spring production at 7:30 p.m. March 22 and 23 and 2 p.m. March 24 at the Dorothy Dickson Darte Center for the Performing Arts, Wilkes University. Artistic Director Kristin Degnan, a Lehman native, has announced the program will open with the prelude and Act II of "Swan Lake," considered by many to be one of the most elegant of the romantic ballets in the classical repertory. BNE's signature ballet "Beethoven's Seventh" will be the concluding work.

Featured in the principal male roles of the two ballets will be guest artists Robert McFarland of New York City's Metropolitan Opera Company Ballet, and Keith F. Brockett formerly with Washington Ballet. Mr. McFarland will partner with BNE resident professional Sara Smith, who will portray the enchanted swan princess Odette. Amanda Simpson, of Dallas, will alternate as a lead swan, while the demanding cygnets ensemble will be shared by Kaitlyn Moody, Dallas and Randa Shahin, Trucksville. Kristin Davison, Dallas, will perform in both ballets' corps de ballet. Kim Davidowitz of Trucksville, Jillian Nataupsky of Shavertown and Virginia Reinert of Sweet Valley will also appear in supporting roles. Tickets, which cost $12-$15, will be available at the box office prior to the commencement of each performance. They also may be purchased in advance at a number of conveniently located outlets. Call 287-5802 or 639-1303 for information or ticket reservations.
