Lake-Lehman Senior Showcase — March 14, 2002

Holly Schweizer, right, asks about the dollhouse that Nikki Seiwel, seated, and Stephanie Weaver built to donate to Luzerne County Children and Youth Services.

B.J. Thomas showed off only a small portion of her collection of horses.

Jesse Saylor built this cedar strip canoe by himself in three months.
