Back Mountain Cyclones U-11 go to 2-0 in spring season

The Back Mountain Cyclones U-11 won their second game April 21, beating Lower Valley Breakers 2-1. The Cyclones dominated, however the Breaker's goaltender had a superb game, shutting down most of the Cyclone scoring opportunities and keeping them scoreless for the first 25 minutes of the game. Tim Ropel scored first half off a pass from David Zurek. A fantastic defensive effort by Zurek, Stephen Schilling and Alex Slocum kept the opposition from coming down field most of the second half. With 10 minutes to go, the Breakers scored a goal from a direct kick and Ropel, again assisted from Zurek, answered back with a run up the field to score his second goal of the game. Mike Gashi and Colin Grube picked up the win in goal.
