Dallas High gym becomes 'Our Town'

Dallas High School students and staff presented the Thornton Wilder classic, "Our Town," last weekend. Wilder used the setting of a typical small town at the turn of the 20th century to present timeless themes of human nature and relationships. A cast of 20 students appeared the play, which was directed by Mrs. Elaine A. Bauer, assisted by Miss Audrey Ide. Emily Nagy was the student assistant director and Adam Pajka was the stage manager. Both also took parts in the play.
