Dallas Elementary holds Women's History Program

In conjunction with Women's History Month, Dallas Elementary School recently hosted an assembly highlighting many famous women who made a difference in history. Kathleen Dey, from Mobile Productions, began the program portraying Clara Barton, Founder of the American Red Cross. After reviewing Miss Barton's accomplishments, she slid to other famous women including: Florence Nightingale, madame Curie, Helen Keller, Anne Sullivan, Harriet Tubman, Amelia Earhart and Eleanor Roosevelt. Some students were asked to come up during the performance to help make a point about women's roles in history teaching students the valuable roles that women have played in American history.

Gate of Heaven fifth grade D.A.R.E. Graduation

Fifty-six fifth graders recently completed the DARE course under the sponsorship of the Kingston Township Police Department. They not only learned about the negative effects and dangers of drugs and violence, but also how to best handle peer pressure, bullying and other untenable situations.

Welcome to the graduation was given by Mrs. Mary C. Tigie, Gate of Heaven School principal.

Brief remarks were made by Kingston Township Police Chief James Balavage. Board of Supervisors: Paul Sabol, Neil Allen, John Versari and Carl Goodwin were honored guests. Sarah Moga and Leigh Ann Amico were honored during the ceremony for their essays on how great an impact DARE had on them. To conclude the program, David Donowski, Joseph Byczek and Daniel Donowski (on behalf of the fifth grade) presented Officer Ziegler with a gift of appreciation.

National 'Teach the Children How to Save Day' at GOH

Carol Quigley of Luzerne National Bank, accompanied by her daughter Julia (Take Your Daughter to Work Day), and eighth grader Allison Leandri presented a "Learn How to Save" program to the fourth grade homeroom students of Mrs. Anne Lohin and Mrs. Lynn Jones on April 25, as part of "National Teach the Children How to Save Day." Students received various tips on how to save money.

New state quarters were distributed to those students providing correct responses to income and expenditure queries. Students also viewed a film on how coins are made in the Philadelphia and Denver mints.
