

Lake-Lehman fields off limits June 8-Aug. 31

The Lake-Lehman School District wishes to inform district residents and community groups that due to construction, all Lake-Lehman fields at the Senior High school will not be available for use from June 8, through August 31. Also, Senior High School offices will be transferred to the Middle Level Building as of June 8. Anyone needing information from the Senior High School Office, Guidance or Special Education Offices should visit the Middle Level Building from 8 a.m.-3:30 p.m., Monday-Friday.

Wyoming Seminary graduates from Back Mountain

Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School celebrated its 158th Baccalaureate and Commencement May 25 and 26, as 113 seniors from eight states in the United States and 10 other countries completed their high school educations.

School President H. Jeremy Packard presented awards and recognized the school's Cum Laude Society members while Board of Trustees Chairman George B. Sordoni awarded diplomas.

Baccalaureate services were held in the Church of Christ Uniting, Market Street and Sprague Avenue, Kingston. Bishop Sundo Kim, D. Min., senior pastor of the Kwang Lim Methodist Church in Seoul, South Korea, delivered the baccalaureate address. Senior Krystin Kopen of Shavertown read lessons from the Bible.

Pollock inducted into Syracuse honor society

Stephanie Pollock, of Dallas, was one of seven students inducted into the Syracuse University chapter of Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. Established in 1897, Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society is the largest and most respected academic honor society open to students in all academic disciplines. The basis of eligibility is excellence of scholarship combined with integrity of character.

Membership is awarded to students with the highest scholastic standing in their school or college class - the top 10 percent for seniors and the top 5 percent for juniors. Pollock, a junior, is majoring in retailing in the College of Visual and Performing Arts.

Elston, Britt honored

Jessica Elston, of Sweet Valley, and Kathleen Britt, of Harveys Lake, were recently named to the Fall 2002 dean's list for the winter quarter 2002 at Northeastern.

To achieve this distinction, students must carry a full program, have a quality point average of 3.25 or greater out of a possible 4.0 and carry no grade lower than a C.

Elston is majoring in Accounting, while Britt is majoring in Business Administration.

Murphy graduates from Syracuse

Paul Murphy, of Dallas, was among the academic degree candidates honored at Syracuse University's 148th commencement ceremony held May 12. Murphy received a Bachelor of Science degree in bioengineering.

Students of the Month honored at Dallas

The annual Student of the Month Awards Breakfast was held May 24 at Dallas High School. The students who earned this year's award were on hand in addition to sponsors, teachers, school administrators and members of the P.T.S.O.

This year's award sponsors included Senator Charles Lemmond, Representative Phyllis Mundy, Salomon Smith Barney, Wycallis Elementary P.T.O., Back Mountain Ministerial Association, Pace Physical Therapy, Gridiron Club, Riverside Urologic Associates, Dallas Education Association, and the Dallas High School Faculty.

Each month students are picked from nominations for Creative Student, School Spirit, Community Service and Student Achiever. The winners receive a savings bond provided by the sponsors and a blue leather portfolio provided by the Dallas School District. Nominations can be submitted by teachers, administrators, community members and parents for students who go beyond expectations. Anyone can nominate a student or serve as a sponsor.

to a great opportunity.

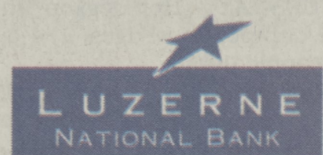

We're re-introducing our popular Step-up CD just in time for our customers and friends to take advantage of a great opportunity. With a Step-up CD, you have an option of moving up to a higher interest rate during the life of your certificate.

What does that mean for you? If rates go up, you can step up to that higher rate. And if rates go down, you're protected with the rate you are currently enjoying.

Step-up CD's are available from 24-60 months for your convenience. Plus, we are offering a special 30-month CD during this promotional period.

For more information on a Home Equity Line of Credit or a Step-up CD, call your Luzerne National Bank Office for more details. Or visit us on the world wide web at www.luzernenational.com.
