Andrew Cherup and Patrice Xenakis

Xenakis, Cherup to marry

Mr. and Mrs. Randall J. Xenakis, Dallas, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Patrice Kelly Xenakis, Radnor, to Andrew John Cherup, Radnor, son of Mr. Jack Cherup, Dallas, and the late Kathleen Cherup.

The bride-to-be is the granddaughter of Joseph and Rose Kelly, Florida, and Evelyn Xenakis, New Hampshire, and the late Perry Xenakis.

The groom-to-be is the grandson of the late Andrew and Anna Cherup, and the late James O'Neill and Evelyn Walko.

Ms. Xenakis is a 1993 graduate of Dallas High School, and a 1997 graduate of Ursinus College, where she earned a bachelor of science degree in psychology. In 1999 Ms. Xenakis received her master of social work degree from the University of Pennsylvania. She is a licensed therapist and currently employed as an Employee Assistance Consultant for Ceridian Corp. in Plymouth Meeting.

Mr. Cherup is a 1989 graduate of Dallas High School. He attended college at the University of Delaware, and is a 1994 graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in marketing. He is employed as a Vice President of Sales for Aegis Commerce, Inc. in Philadelphia.

The couple will exchange vows August 24.

100th Ide Reunion this weekend

The 100th Annual Ide Reunion will be celebrated with a three day affair the last weekend in June at Frances Slocum State Park.

Missionary's brother will bring update on children's rehab facility

Archbishop Eusebius Beltran of Oklahoma City will celebrate a mass of Thanksgiving Tuesday, July 2 at St. Therese's Church, 64 Davis St., Shavertown. The Archbishop is the younger brother of Sister Sponsa Beltran, a Bernardine Franciscan missionary who has cared for abandoned, handicapped children in Liberia, West Africa, for 35 years.

The St. Therese's parish has been a major support of Sister Sponsa and her work. She has visited the church in past years, but the recent outbreak of war in Liberia prevents her from coming this year due to the uncertainty of safe transportation. Her brother will bring news of Our Lady of Fatima Rehab and the children it serves, now numbering over 300.

All are welcome to attend the mass and reception. For background information, visit the children's website at www.epix.net/~krock/olofrehab.htm.
