

College Misericordia earns grant to support historic preservation

College Misericordia recently earned a grant to support preservation of its historic materials. Dawn Pangrazzi, archivist at College Misericordia, applied for and received an institutional needs assessment grant under the Archives and Records Management program of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission. Michael Knies, special collections librarian at the University of Scranton, acted as consultant and conducted the assessment for College Misericordia earlier this year. The grant funded the assessment which included recommendations for preservation and storage of the college's valuable archive materials as well as the development of a policies and procedures manual. Formally established in 1990, the College Misericordia Archives collects, organizes, preserves and makes available records and materials which record and describe the history of College Misericordia and the charisms of its founders and continuing sponsors, the Sisters of Mercy.

Archival materials are available, under controlled conditions and with certain restrictions, to members of the College community and outside researchers as set forth in the Archives Policies and Procedures. Archives displays change throughout the year and may be viewed during regular library hours.
