Jacobs Brothers at Center Moreland UMC

The Jacobs Brothers, veterans in gospel music, specialize in traditional and sacred music which is appealing to young and old alike.

The Jacobs Brothers of Dillsburg, Pennsylvania, will appear at 7 p.m. Friday, August 9 at Center Moreland United Methodist Church

The Jacobs Brothers, veterans in gospel music, are dedicated to the ministry of spreading the Gospel through music. Since 1962 the group has traveled millions of miles, produced more than fifty albums, and hosted many international tours. Presently the Jacobs Brothers' weekly television program is seen by many central Pennsylvanians on WVCB-TV, Channel 49, Red Lion, PA. The King's Kids' Camp, another branch of their ministry, brings thousands of people to central Pennsylvania each summer to hear Gospel music and also provides a Christian camping experience for many underprivileged children. The group is comprised of two brothers, Bob and Mike Jacobs, who are original members of the group that started in the small town of East Berlin, PA, in 1962. The third member, Mike Lawver, who joined the group in 1972, comes from McClure, PA. The word "versatility" best describes the Jacobs Brothers program. Although they specialize in traditional and sacred music, their approach to the taken. Gospel is varied by using the diversified talents of the singers throughout the concert. The end result is a program which is appealing to the young as well as to the older members of the audience. Many have testified that attendance at a Jacobs Brothers concert is truly an unforgettable experience. A free will love offering will be taken.
