

BMT students earn dean's list at U of S

The University of Scranton has announced the Dean's List, which recognizes students for academic excellence, during the 2002 spring semester. Ten Back Mountain residents were recently named to the University of Scranton Dean's List for the Spring 2002 Semester. Students making the list include: Melissa M. Stevans, Trucksville; Matthew D. Zinn, Dallas; Anthony J. Lumbis, Sweet Valley; Maureen A. Paley, Shavertown; AmyLynn A. Pizzano, Dallas; Emily E. Blaum, Dallas; David J. Fine, Sweet Valley; Lauren E. Grant, Dallas; Timothy F. Herbert, Dallas and Diane M. Jachimowicz, Shavertown.

A student must have a grade point average of 3.5 or better with a minimum number of credit hours to make the Dean's List. The list includes students from the College of Arts and Sciences, the Kania School of Management, the Panuska College of Professional Studies and Dexter Hanley College.

Zatorski named to Middlebury dean's list

Devin B. Zatorski, son of Richard Zatorski and The Late Kathleen Bradley of Shavertown, was named to the dean's List during the 2002 spring term at Middlebury College. The Dean's List is the second highest recognition for academic achievement at the liberal arts institution in Vermont.

To be selected for the Dean's List, students must carry a full course load of four or more classes during the semester, achieve a grade point average of 3.3 or higher and earn no grade lower than a "B-."

Murphy named to Syracuse dean's list

Paul Murphy, a senior bio-engineering major at Syracuse University, has been named to the Spring 2002 Dean's List.

To qualify for the Dean's List, students must complete a minimum of 12 credit hours and earn at least a 3.4 grade point average (on a 4.0) during the semester.

Murphy lives in Dallas.

Reino, Susko attend forensic workshop

The biology department of King's College recently sponsored an intensive weeklong workshop with a forensic science theme for local high school juniors. Participants used state-of-the-art equipment and instrumentation in the King's laboratories to solve four "crimes."

Among the techniques students learned were fingerprint analysis, blood testing/typing, and DNA analysis of hair, fibers, seeds and beetles. Participants also learned forensic anthropology techniques by studying human bones, collected evidence from an outdoor "crime scene," and met with a scientist from the Wyoming State Police Crime Lab.

Dr. Susan Jones-Held, associate professor of biology; Mary Sanders, assistant laboratory professor in biology; and Valerie Musto, laboratory manager, conducted the workshop.
