Lake-Lehman cheerleaders host 'commuter cheer camp'

The Lake-Lehman Varsity Cheerleaders recently held their second annual UCA commuter cheer camp at the Lake-Noxen Elementary School. Instructors from the Universal Cheerleaders Association taught the girls cheers, chants, dances and stunts.

Several of the girls tried out during the week and became part of the UCA All-Star team. They are Gabrielle Dragon, Kayla Koziol, Tori Frederick, Samantha Brown, Breanna Marshall, and Stephanie Butler. These girls now have the opportunity to perform in the Philadelphia Thanksgiving Day Parade.

The camp was held at the Lake-Noxen Elementary School due to construction on the high school. Next year's camp will return to the Lake-Lehman High School the second week in July and is open to any girl 5 years of age or older. They may attend individually or as a squad. The girls receive the same quality instruction and opportunities as the UCA resident camps but go home to the comfort of their own homes. For more information, call Sandy at 477-3979 or UCA at 1-888-cheeruca.

Dallas resident Barbara S. Shepherd, recently received a Mus. B in Brass Performance, magna cum laude, from Boston University recently.

College Misericordia receives Newcombe grant

College Misericordia recently received a $15,000 grant from The Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation to assist mature women students with their academic studies.

Recently distributed grants for the 2002-2003 academic year ranged from $15,000 to $40,000, and total $587,000. Partial tuition and special expense scholarships may be funded from these awards.

To date, College Misericordia has received $191,000 from The Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation to support scholarships for its students.

"We are pleased with the Newcombe Foundation's continued support of our students and recognition of our quality education," says Renee Zehel, Director of Government, Corporate and Foundation Relations at College Misericordia.

The Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation of Princeton, N.J., provides Newcombe Scholarships to 35 colleges and universities in a geographical area which includes Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York City, Delaware, Maryland and Washington, D.C. These grants are for the 2002-2003 academic year.

SAT prep course at Penn State

High school students can register now for Penn State Wilkes-Barre's review course for the Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT) to be given on October 12 and November 1, 2002. This course offers high school students a seven-session, grade-free course to prepare for the verbal and math portions of the SAT. It provides information on the current format of the SAT, and instructs students in test-taking techniques to help them realize their full potential on the test.

The course will be held on Tuesday evenings, August 27 through October 8, from 6-9 p.m. in the Center for Technology at the campus in Lehman. Students may take one or both of the verbal or math reviews.

For more information, call Penn State Wilkes-Barre Continuing Education at 675-9253 or e-mail suew@psu.edu.

Bus schedules in next week's Post

Transportation schedules for the Dallas and Lake-Lehman school districts will appear in the August 22 issue of The Dallas Post, along with other back-to-school information.

The Best Defense Against Peer Pressure is Confidence
We specialize in teaching children to stand up for themselves and stay in control of their mind and body in the face of any situation. Parents can expect improved grades, stronger confidence, increased pride and a razor sharp focus — a quality largely absent in today's "brand name" kids.
Our classes are fun, affordable and convenient for busy families. This school year, give your child more than just a new backpack. Give your child the gift of confidence through martial arts training.
