

THE DALLAS POST

SportsWeek

Section 2

Gridiron tuneup

The Lake-Lehman Black Knights traveled to Lackawanna Trail last week to scrimmage with the Lions. Lake-Lehman opens its 2002 season at home Saturday, hosting Nanticoke.

In photos, clockwise from right: Brandon Burkhardt escaped the grasp of a Trail tackler; Chad Derhammer squared up; Brandon Wren ran back onto the field after talking with head coach Bob Langan; Joe Maille tried to change direction and tackle a Trail ball carrier.

POST PHOTOS/MONICA MARZANI

Radzinski wins javelin events

□ Lake-Lehman track coach sets example

Ed Radzinski, head track and field and cross country coach at Lake-Lehman High School, has won the javelin competition at five all-comer track and field meets this spring and summer. He won at Delaware Valley with a throw of 226'7"; at Franklin & Marshall, 217'7"; at Rowan University, 228'5"; at Lower Dauphin, 232'3"; and at Muhlenberg College with a career-best 233'6".

Radzinski will compete in two more events, at Lehigh University and Rowan. He will spend the fall and winter on a weightlifting and plyometric program and resume throwing in March.

Michelle Berley wins 5 silvers

Michelle Berley of Shavertown won five silver medals at the Keystone State Games held recently at Northeast Gymnastics. The 12-year-old level 8 gymnast took second place on each event: floor, beam, vault and uneven bars. Her best event was floor exercise with a score of 9.225. She also placed second all around with a score of 35.00AA. She is now qualified to compete in the national meet in 2003 in Connecticut.

Michelle won a Silver medal last year in St. Louis, Missouri on the balance beam competition. Michelle trains at Northeast Gymnastics Academy, Wilkes-Barre. She is coached by Ms. Lori Dexter and will compete at Level 9 this season.

Skammer medals in Keystone events

Sara Skammer received two medals in gymnastics, Level 6 at the Keystone State Games. She placed first on floor exercise and second on vault. She is a member of Northeast Gymnastics Academy.

Sara also received medals in diving. She placed first on the three meter board and second on the one meter board. She is a member of the WVW Fast Springboard Diving Club and is coached by Rob Jacobs. Sara attends the fourth grade at Dallas Elementary School.

Sem tops Mounts in first match

Wyoming Seminary, the leading golf team in the Wyoming Valley Conference, beat Dallas Monday by a 204-226 score in a match played at Irem Temple Country Club in Dallas. Mike Fehlinger was the leading scorer for Dallas with a 41. He was followed by Sean Gilroy, 43; Mike Peeler, 44; Todd Kerestes, 48; and Bill Calise, 48. Sem's Ross Brown was medalist with a 39, followed by Chris Boyle, 40; Greg Mascioli, 41; Ryan Gower and John Brown, 42.

FRED ADAMS/FOR THE DALLAS POST

Dan Smith of Dallas watches his ball leave the first tee.

Mike Fehlinger of Dallas eyes up a chip on the first hole at the Irem Temple CC.

Cyclones win opener

The Back Mountain Cyclones U-12 soccer team won their first game of the fall season 10-1 against Valley Youth Fury of Archibald in the North East Travel League. Scoring goals were David Zurek, Ryan Shannon, Sean MacDougall, Eric Fritzes, Harry Schall, Carson Baker, Alex Slocum and Mike Gashi. Assisting the goal scorers were Tim Ropel with four assists, Andrew Payne, Peter Recchia, and Brad Johnson.

DYB signups Sept. 14, 17

Dallas Youth Basketball will hold signups for boys and girls winter leagues from 2-6 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 14 and from 7-9 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 17 at Wycallis Elementary. Players entering grades 3-8 who reside within the Dallas School District are eligible. Each player will be required to take part in the annual fundraiser, with a buy-out option available. For more information, call George Gracely (boys) at 639-1467 or Peggy Lacey (girls) at 696-4603.