Samuels on Hartwick dean's list

Hartwick College senior Amy K. Samuels of Dallas, daughter of Kathy Samuels and Gary Samuels, has been named to the spring term dean's list at Hartwick College.

Inclusion on Hartwick's dean's list requires completion of a full course load with at least 3.5 grade point average.

Samuels is majoring in Biology. At Hartwick, she has participated in Big Brother/Big Sister Program, Orchestras Dance Club, Outing Club, Tri-Beta, and Grassroots.

Van Loon, Gilligan check out USNA

Civilians Peter C. Van Loon, son of Stephanie J. and Mark A. Van Loon of Dallas, and John W. Gilligan son of Martin J. Gilligan, Dallas, recently participated in the U.S. Naval Academy's week-long summer seminar program in Annapolis, Md.

During the program, Van Loon and Gilligan were introduced to academy life through a regimen of academics, physical training, intramural sports, sailing and seamanship, as well as leadership training and social activities.

The summer seminar program was designed by the U.S. Naval Academy's office of admissions to give students a taste of the challenges and benefits of a Naval Academy education.

Both Van Loon and Gilligan attend Dallas High School

Alison Taroli named to Who's Who

Alison M. Taroli, 17, has been notified that she has been accepted into Who's Who Among American High School Students for the second consecutive year. Less than 1 percent of all high school students are honored in consecutive years.

Alison is entering her senior year at Bishop Hoban High School, where she is in the Honors program, as well as a Young Scholar at Wilkes University. She is active in her school chorus, Seasonal Singers, School Musical, Rotary Club, Forensics Team, and is also captain of her cross country and track (sprinters) teams. Her outside interests include being active at the Little Theater of Wilkes Barre, Music Box Dinner Playhouse and Showcase Theater.

Alison resides in Dallas with her parents, Attorney and Mrs. Garry S. Taroli and her brother, Daniel.
