

Gate of Heaven School opens

Gate of Heaven school opened its doors for the 2002-2003 school year on August 26. The first student to arrive was seventh grader John Frederick who remarked, "I'm glad to be back at school to see my friends." The first bus student who arrived at GOH (Bus #7) was Denise Shovlin. First grader Shovlin said she likes when she first gets in school; she was also happy with her homeroom teacher and aide.

The Opening Day School Mass was celebrated with Reverend John Lambert, pastor of Gate of Heaven Church, on September 6 with assistance from Mrs. Colleen Engler's Homeroom Class #106. A Special Commemoration Liturgy, with Msgr. J. Peter Crynes (Pastor of St. Therese's Church) presiding, is planned for September 11. First graders are actively planning and will be celebrating Johnny Appleseed's Birthday (September 26) and Dog Week (September 22-28).

Denise Shovlin, first grade and John Frederick, seventh grade, were the first to arrive at school.

SPCA to host teen forum

The SPCA of Luzerne County is initiating a new program. The Teen Forum will be an eight-session discussion group for senior high school students entailing in-depth discussion about animal issues. Each session will be 60 minutes long and be the second Thursday of every month. Qualifying students will be in tenth, eleventh or twelfth grade in the 2002-2003 school year. If interested you may pick up an application packet at the SPCA of Luzerne County, 524 E. Main St., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., 18702. All application packets must be in by September 29. The first session will begin October 10. A total of twenty students will be selected and notified by October 5. If you have any questions about the program call Beth Maffei, Program Coordinator at 825-4111.
