

County Fair Photo Album

The 40th annual Luzerne County Fair drew thousands of visitors to the fairgrounds off Route 118, as clear weather made a trip to the fair easy and pleasant. They enjoyed exhibition buildings stuffed with arts, crafts, prize vegetables and baked goods, a midway for the young and young at heart, the county's top animals, shows and, of course, plenty of food booths.

Ashleigh and Bobby Miroslaw had their own transportation. Sister Rachel, center, joined them for a photo.

POST PHOTOS/JIM PHILLIPS

Buffo the Clown tried to coax Katelin McGraw into letting him hold her furry friend.

Chris Traver held Chris II up for a close look at a billy goat.

A pair of holsteins kept a wary eye on the photographer.

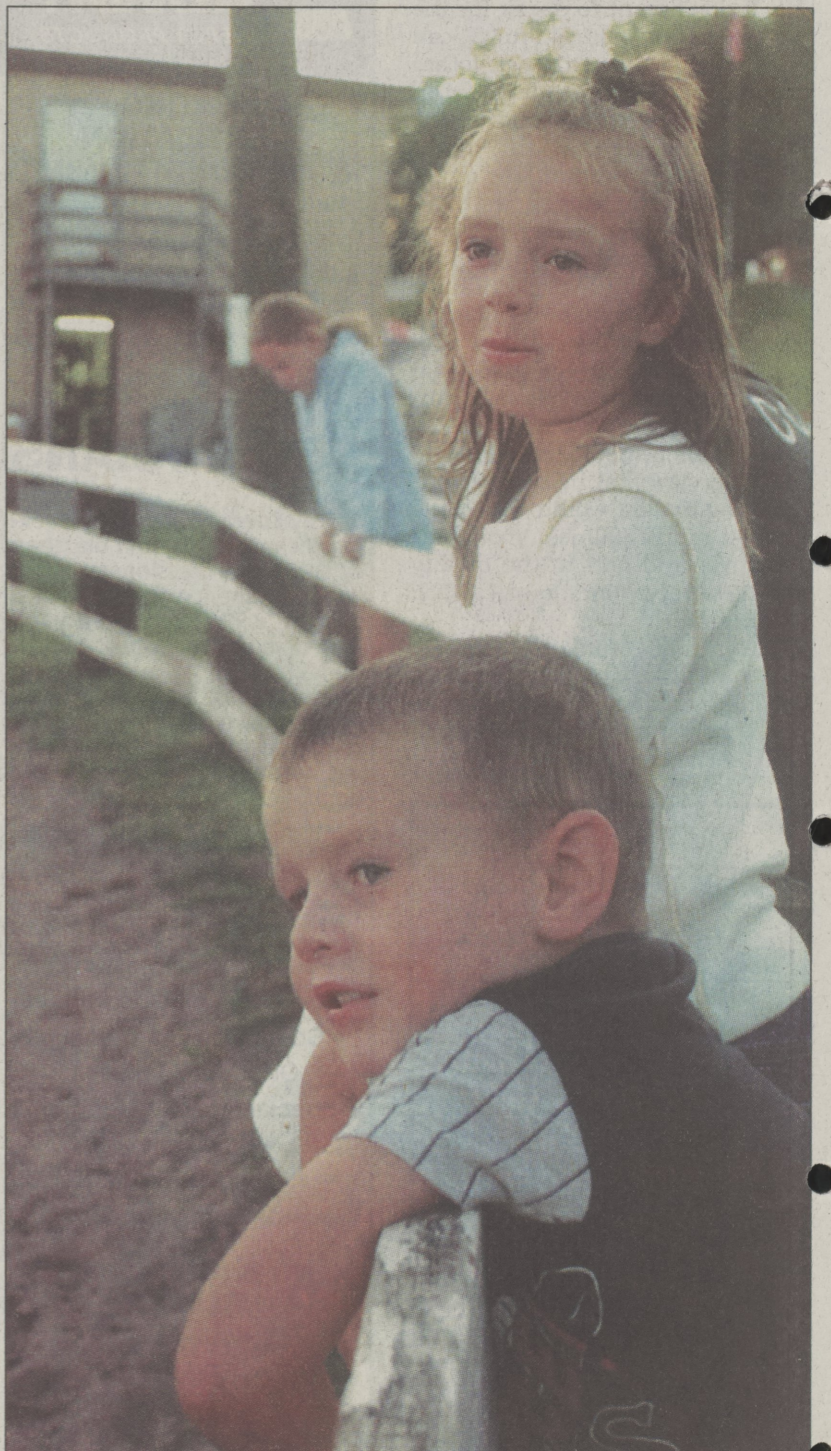

Christopher Traver wasn't sure if he wanted to hold a squiggly creature.

Mary Kate Katyl helped Dave Katyl at the family business booth.

Dana Yozwiak sat tall in the saddle.

Nathan Spencer and Shaina Thorne hung on the rail to get a good look at the action in the horse ring.