O'Dell

three years ago. Tuesday night, the former Lake-Lehman High School star etched her name into the King's record books.

O'Dell, who leads the Lady Monarchs with 161 kills this season, was a bit overwhelmed by posting her 1,000 kill at home in front of her family.

"It's a great feeling," O'Dell said. "It was a goal I set for myself a long time ago. It was definitely on my mind going into tonight's game."

"It's one of the things everybody was playing for."

O'Dell said her teammates deserve most of the credit for her reaching 1,000 kills. "We have a great work ethic, on and off the court, and we have a special drive to win."

Tara Holly, a former Dallas

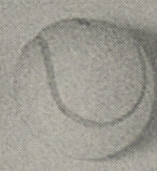

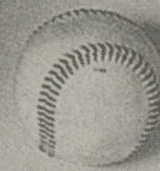

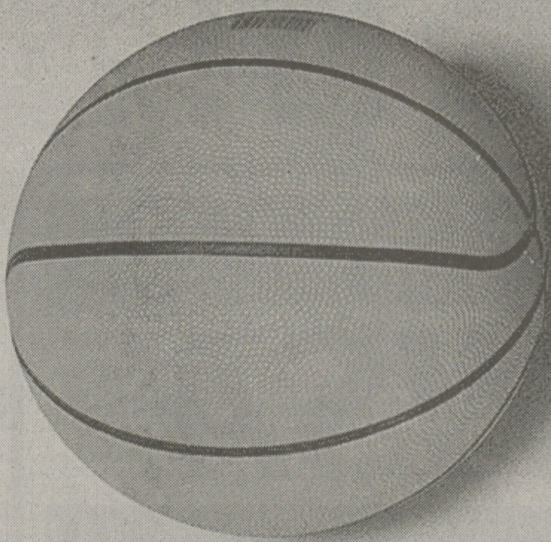

High School standout, said the Lady Monarchs always expect to win. She is one of three seniors who have won 100 games at King's.

"None of us will settle for second place," Holly said. "This is the best team I've played on in my four years at King's. We have excellent balance on offense and defense."
