Wednesday. He is known not only for his willingness to pitch in wherever he is needed but also for his gracious manner and gentle ways. Art truly characterizes the philosophy of the Habitat Building Ministry and continues to be a wonderful representative of its mission. In presenting the award, Joyce Shiplett said that her husband had always felt he was put on this earth to help others. In reply, Art Thompson noted that he remembered Herm fondly and had always looked up to him during his early days at
