O'Dell reaches 1,000 point milestone

From staff reports

WILKES-BARRE — Lake-Lehman graduate Faith O'Dell notched her 1,000th kill as the Lady Monarchs defeated Delaware Valley, 30-12, 30-11 and 30-12 Tuesday.

The 5-foot-9 senior wound up with a team-best 12 kills and 11 digs in what proved to be a landmark victory for King's, which is off to a 13-0 start this season.

O'Dell transferred to King's College from Clarion University. See O'DELL, pg 11

Mascioli medals at pre-districts

From staff reports

WILKES-BARRE — Wyoming Seminary's Greg Mascioli was the medalist on the boys side with a 1-over-par 73 in a pre-district match Tuesday at Wilkes-Barre Golf Club.

Lake-Lehman's Dustin Kapsion (76) also finished in the top 11 to qualify for the District 2 Golf Tournament.

The district tournament will be Oct. 1 at Wilkes-Barre Golf Club.

Huntsville crowns club champions

Brian Corbett played steady golf to capture his first club championship at Huntsville Golf Club with rounds of 76, 70 and 74. Finishing 10 strokes behind was Lynn Kilduff with rounds of 78, 74 and 78. Other top finishers were Santo LaFoca, Thomas Bevevino and Dom Castrignano.

These top five finalists will represent Huntsville in the annual AGA Coal Scuttle tournament later this month.

In the Ladies Club Championship, Sis Ertley captured her fifth championship. She also won the event in 1995, 1996, 2000 and Angela Kim finished in second, followed by Mae Smith and Leah Flock.

The Senior Club Championships proved to be an exciting event as both defending champions were able to repeat. In the senior division Chad Rado successfully defended his title, becoming the first three-time senior champion. In the Super Senior Division, Dick Maslow won for the second consecutive year in an exciting four-way playoff. Malow won his title on the second hole of the sudden death playoff.

Bill Lawler wins Huntsville Invitational

Bill Lawler, from Fox Hill Country Club, fired a second round 74 and then defeated Harry Heck on the second hole of a sudden death playoff to win the Huntsville Invitational. Bill becomes the second winner in this 36 hole stroke play event. Harry Heck's even par 72 got him into the two man playoff. Rounding out the top six were Anthony Bonargo, Brian Corbett, Matt Cuddy and Bill Gaylord.

Huntsville Invitational - Final Results: Bill Lawler, 147 (won on second Playoff Hole); Harry Heck, 147; Anthony Bonargo, 149; Brian Corbett, 149; Matt Cuddy, 150; Bill Gaylord, 150; Tim Burns, 151; Jeff Ranck, 151; Lynn Kilduff, 152; Santo LaFoca, 152; Joe Weiscarger, 152; Mike Vassil, 153.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

From Staff Reports

FIELD HOCKEY

Lake-Lehman 3, Lackawanna Trail 0

LEHMAN TWP. — Lisa Wasser scored two goals and assisted on a third as the Black Knights remained undefeated by blanking Lackawanna Trail 3-0 on Sept. 11.

Prior to the game, the teams lined up along the sideline where most of the fans were sitting. In between the teams stood MacDougall, who sang "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Lehman's players took the field wearing red, white or blue headbands and dominated the game. Wasser scored a goal in each half, and set up a third by Traci Ragukas as Wasser was the dominant player on the field.

Tracy Hudak recorded two saves.

Trail upset Lehman in the 2000 District 2 Class 2A semifinals. The Black Knights have won their three matches since.

Nanticoke 3, Dallas 2

NANTICOKE — Goals by Lindsay Thomas and Kelly Barton in the final 10 minutes of regulation rallied Nanticoke past Dallas.

The Mountaineers held a pair of one-goal leads thanks to tallies by Shannon Thomas and Mandy Alles. Sarah McGrady also scored for the Trojans, who remained undefeated.

Rosalyn Wentko stopped eight shots in goal.

BOYS SOCCER

Lake-Lehman 3, Coughlin 2

WILKES-BARRE — Lake-Lehman's Nate Carsman scored all three goals in the Black Knights' victory. Carsman scored the game-winner with 13:23 left in regulation.

Dallas 1, Tunkhannock 0

TUNKHANNOCK — Paul Douglas scored in the second half and Jeremy Moore made three saves to record the shutout in

Mounts had their chances, but Warriors got the only points

From staff reports

WEST PITSTON — One time across the goal line was enough for Wyoming Area Friday night.

Standout junior Joe Marianacci scored the game's only points on a 94-yard punt return in the first quarter as Wyoming Area shut out Dallas 6-0 in a Wyoming Valley Conference Division 2 game.

"He is a great player," said Dallas coach Ted Jackson. "But other than that I thought we did a great job on him. He makes them a really good football team."

After the defense stymied Dallas on third down at midfield, Marianacci fielded a bouncing punt at his 6-yard line, then worked his way down the right sideline to score with 16 seconds left in the first quarter.

The victory gave Wyoming Area (2-0 Div. 2, 2-1 overall) sole possession of first place in Division 2.

However, the bigger picture, the District 2 Class 3A playoff race, is what matters more in the long run. The victory against Dallas (2-0, 2-1) coupled with Berwick's stunning loss to Wyoming Valley West tossed the Warriors back into the playoff mix.

Dallas had opportunities, particularly in the second half, to erase the deficit. The Mountaineers recovered a fumble early in the third quarter only to fumble back the ball on the next play. Tailback Ron Bolton gained most of his 137 yards rushing in the final two quarters, but two drives stalled in Wyoming Area territory.

The one drive ended on an incompleteness of a fourth-and-six at the Wyoming Area 26-yard line early in the fourth quarter. The other stopped at the Wyoming Area 20 on another in-

Don Murray controlled the ball as a Hazleton defender closed in last week. The Mountaineers lost 5-2.

Lehman hockey has a spotless week

From staff reports

LEHMAN TWP. — Lake-Lehman field hockey coach Jean Lipski said she was worried about this week.

Her team played rival Dallas on Monday, Wednesday it was talented Lackawanna Trail. Friday it was powerhouse Wyoming Valley West.

"I said last week, 'If we're 6-0 at the end of this week, we know we're OK,'" Lipski said.

Lehman, last year's PIAA Class 2A runner-up, proved to be a little better than "OK." The Knights capped their perfect week with a 1-0 win over the Spartans on Friday to improve to 6-0. Lehman defeated Dallas (4-0) and Lackawanna Trail (3-0) earlier in the week.

The Knights got a goal from Carla Chiampi just 3:12 in, with a Lisa Wasser assist, to take the lead for good.

Lehman goalkeeper Tracy Hudak preserved her sixth shutout of the season by saving a penalty stroke by Valley West's Maribeth Brozena with 6:13 left in the game.

"It was an unbelievable game," Lipski said. "One of the officials said, 'This is one of the best games I've seen in a long, long time.'"

Mounts blanks Tunkhannock

DALLAS — Caitlin Dukas scored the only goal with two minutes to go in the 7-on-7 sudden death overtime. Rosalyn Wentko stopped seven shots for the shutout.

Black Knights give Coughlin first win

From Staff Reports

WILKES-BARRE — Coughlin senior Steve Kerestes ran for 109 yards and a touchdown and the Crusader defense allowed Lake-Lehman just one score in a 20-6 victory at Wilkes-Barre Memorial Stadium.

Early in the first quarter, the Crusaders forced Lake-Lehman to punt from its 39. Mark Yankowski's punt hit his own player in the back. Coughlin's Lenny Sarnick scooped up the ball and returned it 32 yards for the game's first touchdown.

The closest the Black Knights came to scoring during the first half was late in the second quarter. On third-and-seven from the Lehman 22, Coughlin quarterback John Vincarelli was intercepted by Brandon Burkhardt. Burkhardt returned the pick 80 yards to the end zone, but it was called back on a holding penalty.

After Coughlin took a 20-0 lead, Lehman finally got on the board. The biggest play during the 64-yard drive was a 9-yard pass from Brian Cornia to Brandon Wren on third-and-9 from the Crusader 11 yard line. After the Coughlin defense stuffed two Dave Harris runs, Burkhardt scored a 2-yard touchdown to pull the Black Knights within 20-6.
