two off. They are a good football team, and I wouldn't want to play them again."

The latter interception ended a Hanover Area drive that started at its 5-yard line with three minutes to play. Dallas' Mike Racoski pinned the Hawkeyes with poor field position by angling a 33-yard punt out of bounds.

Hanover Area (1-1 Div. 2, 3-1 overall) nearly made the most of the situation. Quarterback Jeff Shook scrambled for the early yardage, then connected with receiver Joe Cefalo on a fourth-and-10 play for a 26-yard gain. The ball hit Cefalo's hands as he attempted to make a diving catch, then he clutched it about a foot from hitting the ground.

"We made a couple big plays to keep that drive going," said Hanover Area coach Dave Fisher. "I told our kids that we put ourselves in position to win the game, and that's what we wanted. We wanted to be at a place in the fourth quarter where we had an opportunity to win."

But two plays later, Gryskevicz cut in front of a Hanover Area receiver and intercepted a pass, allowing Dallas to improve to 2-1 in the division and 3-1 overall.

"My legs started tightening up again," Gryskevicz said, "but when it comes to the end of the game like that, you have to do whatever you can to get the 'W.'"

Dallas needed to do a lot of things besides intercepting passes. Sophomore Mike Kelly had to step in for Gryskevicz at quarterback and keep an impromptu conservative offense moving. Tailback Ryan Bolton was knocked woozy in the fourth quarter, forcing the Mountaineers to go with an all-sophomore backfield at times.

"We tried to put the pressure on our defense," Jackson said. "(Kelly) runs pretty well and throws pretty well, but we just didn't want him to make a mistake. We got enough out of our offense, then Mike punted the ball well a couple times."

Dallas led 14-3 at the half as Gryskevicz threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Chris Hayes late in the first quarter and a 16-yarder to Racoski late in the second. Hanover Area squeezed in a 20-yard field goal by Tony Shipula between the touchdowns.

Unable to generate a consistent running game in the first half, Hanover Area utilized its passing attack effectively in the third quarter. Shook threw for 24 yards to Joe Ruane to dig the Hawkeyes out of a deep hole, then hit Ruane again across the middle for a 54-yard touchdown. The point-after kick was wide, and Hanover Area trailed 14-9 with 3:37 left in the third.
