FIELD HOCKEY

Dallas 2, Northwest 1

DALLAS TWP. — Shannon

Caitlin Dukas scored in the first half for the Mountaineers, who had 18 shots in the game. Rosalyn Wentko stopped five Northwest shots in goal.

Wyoming Seminary 4, Dallas 0

KINGSTON — Wyoming Seminary overwhelmed Dallas, 4-0, in a Wyoming Valley Conference game Sept. 20.

Although Seminary outshot Dallas 27-1, the Blue Knights led only 1-0 at halftime after Tamra Morris tipped in a shot by Suchoski past Mountaineer goalie Roslyn Wentko.

"Their goalie was awesome," said Sem coach Karen Klassner of Wentko. "We earned our goals."

The loss didn't discourage first-year Dallas coach Cindy Maier, who is seeing some good vital signs from her players.

"We have so many girls who are willing to play their hearts out," Maier said. "Tying it together is the key. The skills are coming. The thoughtfulness is coming. They need to tie it all together, and they'll do that in time."

Lehman 2, Meyers 0

WILKES-BARRE — Tracey Hudak recorded her third goal and eighth shutout as Lake-Lehman defeated Meyers at Miner Park.

Hudak, the goalie for the Black Knights, also takes penalty strokes and converted her third this season during the second half. Meredith Edwards scored Lehman's other goal, her sixth of the season.

Hudak made one save, and got a little help when a shot by the Mohawks hit the post. She hasn't allowed a goal this season.

Dallas 4, Montrose 0

DALLAS — Shannon Thomas scored a pair of goals and added an assist to lead Dallas. Sara Swepton also scored for the Mountaineers and goalkeeper Rosalyn Wentko made two saves for the shutout. Dallas dominated, getting 22 shots to three and 13 corners to six.

Lake-Lehman 7, GAR 0
