Ryck Kaiser Trio to debut at Contra dance

The Chicory House and the Folklore Society will present a New England Contra Dance on Saturday Oct. 12, at 8 p.m. The dance is held at the St. Therese's Church, Pioneer Ave. at Davis street in Shavertown.. No partner or previous experience is necessary, and all dances are taught and called.

The Ryck Kaiser Trio features Ryck on fiddle. He is accompanied by Jill Smith on piano, and Henry Koretsky on mandolin and guitar. Together they pool a vast source of acoustic talent that stems from years of experience playing with other acoustic bands with which they are presently associated. They'll be playing a mix of traditional Appalachian dance tunes and Celtic reels and jigs.

Caller Bob Nicholson is noted for being able to draw into the dance even the most hesitant of newcomers. He often instructs from the stage but then calls from among the dancers.

Contra dance is similar to square dancing, but is done in long lines of couples (like the Virginia Reel) rather than in squares.

Newcomers are warmly welcomed. Newcomers will discover that the more experienced dancers will dance at the level of their partner, adjusting their dancing to match the skill level and style of whoever they may be dancing with at the moment. No previous dance experience is necessary. Lightweight clothing is recommended.

The Chicory house is an all-volunteer nonprofit coffeehouse, sponsoring folk music and dance in the Wyoming Valley. Admission is $6 for adults and $15 for families. Dancers are invited to bring a snack to share at intermission. For information, call 333-4007.
