

OBITUARIES

QUENTIN R. 'CAP' WALTERS

Was aboard ship at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941

Quentin R. "Cap" Walters, 82, of Dallas, Pa., an insurance and real estate executive, former Navy petty officer and civic leader, died at the Mercy Center, Dallas, on Monday, September 30, 2002.

The son of Reese and Freda Walters, Mr. Walters was born in Concrete City and was a graduate of Hanover High School and Bucknell University. After graduating from college, Mr. Walters joined his uncle, George Montgomery in the insurance and real estate business in Wilkes-Barre. The business subsequently became Nobel & Walters, Inc., and later Walters Associates, Inc. Mr. Walters was semi-retired from the organization at the time of his death. He had served as an officer in the Independent Insurance Agents Association of Wyoming Valley. He was a member of the Nanticoke Masonic Lodge #541 and Irem Temple A.A.O.N.M.S. of Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. Walters was aboard the USS Raleigh when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941. He was a veteran of WW II and later served in the Korean Conflict. In recent years, he had attended many reunions throughout the country with other Pearl Harbor veterans. He frequently lectured at schools concerning the attack and also participated at various Pearl Harbor remembrance events.

For more than 50 years, Mr. Walters was active in the community life of the Wilkes-Barre area. He was past president of the Luzerne County Bucknell Alumni Association and president of the Kingston-Forty Fort Lions Club. In the 1950s, he was assistant director of Civil Defense for the Borough of Kingston. He had been honored as layman of the year at the Wilkes-Barre YMCA and later went on to serve on its board of directors. He also served on the board of directors of the Wayside Mission. In addition to his civic undertakings, Mr. Walters was very active in church affairs. He was a deacon and elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Wilkes-Barre and taught Sunday School classes there for more than 20 years. Many people have been touched by his life. He was always recommending young people for jobs in the area or encouraging young men and women to attend the service academies. He would always be seen at the area's nursing homes visiting those who couldn't get out. He truly was a good man and was loved by all who knew him. Cap's greatest love of all was for his family as they were all important in his life.

He was preceded in death by a son, Wayne R., and brothers, William, Henry, Conrad and George (Tad).

He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Bette Grodzicki; son, Gary of Chase; two daughters, Betsy Tribendis of Chase and Dr. Mary A. Walters of Dallas; grandchildren, Navy Lt. Scott Walters, stationed in Guam, Susan Walters, Michael Tribendis Jr., and Megan Tribendis; and two brothers, John Walters of Hershey and David Walters of Willingboro, N.J.

Memorial contributions can be sent to the First Presbyterian Church or the Wilkes-Barre Family YMCA, Northampton Street, Wilkes-Barre.
