

Community Photo Album

Dallas Halloween Parade

The Dallas Kiwanis hosted their annual Halloween parade with close to one hundred children in attendance on Sunday. Costume judging took place at the former Dallas High School and was handled by members of the Back Mountain Business and Professional Association. After the judging the parade, led by members of Boy Scout Troop 281 of Dallas and members of Dallas, Kunkle and Shavertown Fire and Ambulance companies, proceeded down Church Street to the Eastern Star building. The Back Mountain Business and Professional Association provided Halloween treat bags and a party complete with a disc jockey, apple cider and doughnuts. Monetary prizes were awarded to the top five winners in each of five categories.

Mickey Mouse and his pet alligator were played by 5-year-old Tyler Burke and his 2-year-old friend Brenden Jesse.

The first place award for the funniest category was given to Michael Starbuck of Dallas.

Fourteen-month-old Dean Shaver, of Trucksville, enjoyed the day with his siblings, Danielle, aged nine, and 11-year-old Josh.

Carly Elston, a kindergarten student at Dallas Elementary, was entered in the Prettiest category.

Children in the Most Original category wait for their to be judged.

First place winner in the Prettiest category, 6-year-old Emily Malak of Shavertown, on left, is pictured with 4-year-old Rachel Malak.

Breanna, Chenay and Melinda Champluvier of Sweet Valley enjoyed the Halloween treat bags provided by the Back Mountain Business and Professional Association.