

Applications will be taken for Christmas toy and food program

Catholic Community of Wyoming Valley in conjunction with Catholic Social Services is preparing for its annual Christmas Toy and Food Program. Every year, staff and volunteers work hard to provide toys and food to needy families in the Wyoming Valley. Toy and food applications will be taken at the Park and Lock South, 148 South Main St., Wilkes-Barre, on Sunday, Nov. 17 from 1-5 p.m. and Monday, Nov. 18 through Friday, Nov. 22 from 10 a.m. to noon and from 1:30-6:30 p.m. To complete an application, it is necessary to bring proof of identification for every family member, proof of income, and rent or mortgage receipt. Due to limited volunteers and resources, there will be no make-up day and applications will not be taken over the phone.

American Legion Post lists events

The American Legion, Post 672 will hold its regular meeting at 8 p.m. on Friday, November 8 at the post home. On Saturday, November 9, the Legion will hold its 65th anniversary celebration. Dinner will be at 6 p.m. Reservations only. Call 675-5929 or 675-6542. Veterans Day will be observed at the memorial at the Legion home at 10:45 a.m. All are invited to attend.

Hasay aide will visit twice

A field aide for state Rep. George C. Hasay has scheduled two community visits for the Back Mountain area in November. Millard Twardowski will be at the Harveys Lake Municipal Building from 10 a.m. to noon on Thursday, Nov. 14 and from 10 a.m. until noon on Thursday, Nov. 21 at the Franklin Twp. Municipal Building. Purpose of these visits is to assist constituents in the 117th legislative district. Pace and tax/rent rebate forms will be available as well as the $10 vehicle registration for retired persons. For eligible seniors, only 50 percent of the Social Security counts for income limits for tax rebate program.

Lake twp. recycling Nov. 9

The voluntary recycling drop-off center for Lake Township will be accepting items on the second Saturday of each month. The next opening is Nov. 9 from 10 a.m.-noon at the township building on Rt. 29. The following items may be dropped off: aluminum and bi-metal cans, clear, brown and green glass, plastic #1 and #2 only. No motor oil containers or scrap aluminum can be accepted. This month newspaper will be collected at the same time. Pack tight in paper bags with the glossy inserts removed. Please do not drop off items before the center opens.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stroud

Orzello and Stroud marry

Ann Marie Orzello and David L. Stroud were united in marriage August 3 in Forty Fort Methodist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Donald Roberts. The bride is the daughter of Marie Cumbo, Dupont, and the late Anthony Cumbo. The groom is the son of the late Raymond and Marion Sterns Stroud. The bride, given in marriage by her son, Tom, chose her daughters, Dawn Savanelli and Toni Kuckla, as matrons of honor, and her daughter-in-law, Joan Orzello, as bridesmaid. Alicia Savanelli, grandchild of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Flower girls were Kendra Kuckla and Peyton Orzello, grandchildren of the bride. Ushers were Vincent Savanelli and Anthony Snyder, grandchildren of the bride. Thomas Orzello Jr., grandson of the bride, was ring bearer Camryn Orzello, granddaughter of the bride, was escort. The groom chose his sons, Christopher Stroud and David Stroud, as best men. Scriptural readings were narrated by Maureen Whalen, friend of the family, and Michael Sohanic, cousin of the bride. A wedding reception was held at Araro & Genell in Old Forge. Mrs. Stroud is employed at Cook's Pharmacy in Shavertown. Mr. Stroud is employed as an account executive with CableRep Advertising, Dupont, a division of Cox Communications. Following a honeymoon in Sanabel Island and Cape Coral, Fla., the couple resides in Forty Fort.

Food bank seeking donations to help neighbors in need

The Back Mountain Food Pantry, under the auspices of the Back Mountain Ministerium, is once again asking the public to help spread some holiday cheer to families less fortunate. The pantry served more than 120 families last year, providing them with the food items for their holiday meals. Most of the families served have small children and elderly members. Several Back Mountain merchants are helping the collection by providing locations for the food to be dropped off. Non-perishable items may be dropped off at any of the locations listed below from November 7 through December 18. Cash donations, which will provide turkeys and fresh fruits and vegetables, may be sent to the Back Mountain Food Pantry, c/o Trucksville United Methodist Church, 40 Knob Hill, Trucksville, PA 18708. For more information, please call the church office at 696-3897.

Industrial history of the Wyoming Valley presented at Penn State Wilkes-Barre

Dr. Robert Wolensky, Wilkes University Visiting Professor of Sociology, will present the "Industrial History of the Wyoming Valley" at Penn State Wilkes-Barre's Hayfield House on Friday, November 8 at noon. Dr. Wolensky will focus on the social and cultural development of the Wyoming Valley from the 18th century to the present time. The social and cultural patterns associated with the industrial period between 1850 and 1950 will be given particular attention, highlighted by the anthracite, railroad, and garment industries. Relationships between social and cultural development, historic preservation, social meaning and individual identity will also be addressed. The program, sponsored by the Campus Environment Team and Student Activity Funds, is free and open to the public. For more information, call 675-2171.

Homemade dog biscuit sale aids Girl Scouts

Senior Girl Scout Troop #665 of Dallas will once again be selling homemade dog biscuits. Three different sizes and varieties of dog biscuits will be packaged and ready for holiday gift giving. The dog biscuit varieties are: Regular, Peanut Butter, and Carob and mixed, and come in sizes small, medium and large. Cost of each bag is $3. Orders can be placed by calling Sherry at 696-3854. There is a minimum of three bags per phone order. Delivery will take place the week before Christmas. The profits will be used for yearly troop activities. Order deadline is December 1.

Dallas leaf pick-up Nov. 18-24

Weather permitting, leaf pick-up for Dallas Township residents will be held the week of November 18 through November 22. All leaves must be bagged and placed by the road curb. The township reminds residents not to rake leaves into the drains - as the leaves clog the drains and prevent water from running through.
