

RIF event at Lehman-Jackson

The Lehman-Jackson Elementary School PTA will be holding their first RIF(Reading is Fundamental) event for this school year on Friday, November 15. Featured for this event is the sixth annual poster contest. The theme for this year's contest is "Together We Read." The contest is designed to challenge the students to combine their best artwork with the importance of reading. The students participating will have the chance to have their poster sent to Washington D.C. to be entered into the national level contest. Offset Paperback donated 350 books towards the event that will be distributed amongst the children on that day.
