John C. Metz, left, being honored as 2002 Operator of the Year by Nation's Restaurant News.

Metz named Restaurant Operator of the Year

John C. Metz, chairman and chief executive officer of Metz Enterprises, was named Nation's Restaurant News' 2002 Operator of the Year at the 43rd annual Multi-Unit Foodservice Operators (MUFSSO) conference in Orlando, Florida on October 1.

Metz was selected from among a group of six 2002 Golden Chain honorees, which included Lee A. Cockerell, executive vice president of operations for the Walt Disney World Resort in Orlando, Florida with annual foodservice sales of $1 billion; Lattimore M. Michael, the founder, chairman and chief executive of Back Yard Burgers, the Memphis-based, quick service chain with 106 units in 17 states and annual sales of $77.7 million; Edna Morris, president of Red Lobster restaurants, a subsidiary of Darden Restaurants, Inc. with annual sales of $2.34 billion; Dennis Tase, president and chief operating officer of the Galardi Group of Newport, California, parent company of the Wienerschnitzel and Original Hamburger Stand quick-service chains with annual foodservice sales of $212 million and Alfred L. Thimm, Jr., president and chief operating officer of Palm Restaurant Group with annual foodservice sales of $127 million.

The Golden Chain winners were chosen by the editors of Nation's Restaurant News based on the growth and success they achieved for their companies within their individual market over the past year.

As an entrepreneur, Metz has demonstrated a tenacity to succeed. It is this determination, combined with a keen appreciation of customer needs and dining management that have fueled his diverse enterprises. The result has been strong business settings, which offer individuals tremendous opportunities to succeed while offering the dining public entertainment, relaxation, and-of course-great food. ## Food bank establishes convenient dropoff points

The Back Mountain Food Pantry, under the auspices of the Back Mountain Ministerium, is once again asking the public to help spread some holiday cheer to families less fortunate. The pantry served more than 120 families last year, providing them with the food items for their holiday meals. Most of the families served have small children and elderly members.

Several Back Mountain merchants are helping the collection by providing locations for the food to be dropped off. Non-perishable items may be dropped off at any of the locations listed below from November 7 through December 18. Cash donations, which will provide turkeys and fresh fruits and vegetables, may be sent to the Back Mountain Food Pantry, c/o Trucksville United Methodist Church, 40 Knob Hill, Trucksville, PA 18708.

For more information, please call the church office at 696-3897.

Dallas Township leaf pickup

Weather permitting, leaf pick-up for Dallas Township residents will be held the week of November 18 through November 22. All leaves must be bagged and placed by the road curb. The township reminds residents not to rake leaves into the drains - as the leaves clog the drains and prevent water from running through.
