

Community Photo Album

Dallas High Student Council dance

The Dallas High School Student Council sponsored a dance Saturday night that combined youthful fun and enthusiasm with reminders that not everyone will enjoy a carefree holiday season. Blinded by the Light included a drive to collect non-perishable food items needed for the Back Mountain Food Pantry, which serves more than 100 families throughout the year, but especially at Thanksgiving and the rest of the holiday season. There also were poignant reminders of Casey Zalenski, the junior who was killed in a botched robbery attempt at his home on November 8. In the end, the event was a tribute to the resilience of the human spirit and to generosity toward those less fortunate.

Amanda Miller wasn't "Blinded by the Light," protected by her oversized shades.

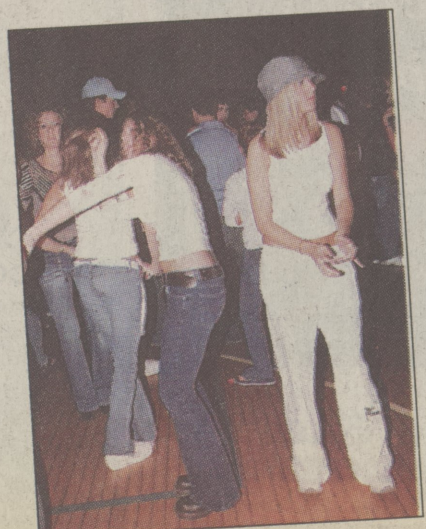

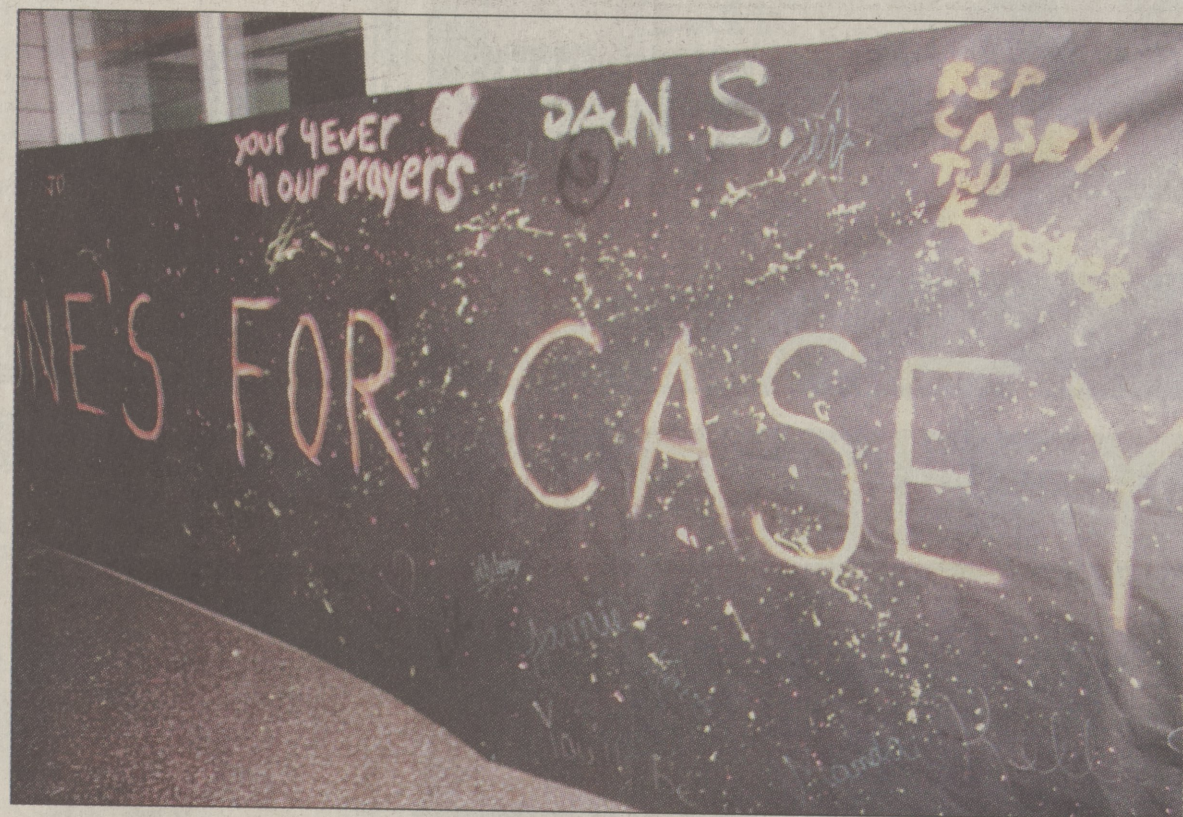

Melissa Novitski, Kate Smith, Tami Kunkle and Kristina Klokas struck a pose.

These guys decided to observe their own dress code. From left, Mitch Mitchell, Chris Higdon, Jeff Dickson, Todd Kerestes, Kevin Arnaud, Paul McCue, Kevin Domzalski.

Jon Barbose and Meredith Lacey shared a private moment.

Kelli Harvey and Amanda Miller on the dance floor.

Mike Cherinka, student council advisor, and Jen Arthur, student council president, minding the dropoff point for food donations for the Back Mountain Food Pantry.

PHOTOS BY CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK