

Back Mountain churches to celebrate Thanksgiving

The Churches of the Back Mountain will gather in prayer and gratitude to acknowledge and recognize the many blessings of our lives. Celebrating our communion of faith and our common need to pause, acknowledge and give thanks, the church communities invite all women, men and children of the Back Mountain community to this time of shared worship. The service will be held on Wednesday evening, November 27 at 7:30 pm in the sanctuary of Saint Therese's Church on Pioneer Avenue in Shavertown. This time of prayer and gratitude will be followed by a time of Fellowship in the Church Hall. The Planning Committee for the Celebration is comprised of Father Peter Crynes, pastor of Saint Therese's Catholic Church; Reverend Doug Clark, co-pastor of Shavertown United Methodist Church; Pastor Charles Grube of Saint Paul's Lutheran Church, and Mrs. Mary Paley, Coordinator of Liturgy for Saint Therese's Catholic Church.

Dallas native takes reins of public affairs at WTBS

Ten-time Emmy-winning producer Michael Watchulon is has been promoted to executive producer/director for WTBS-17's public affairs department, it was announced today by Terri Tingle, senior vice president of standards and practices for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS, Inc.)

In this role, Watchulon assumes leadership for the public affairs department, with responsibility for FCC compliance and reporting, community relations and all public affairs production, as well as overseeing the day-to-day operations of the public affairs department. Watchulon is based in Atlanta and reports to Tingle.

Watchulon most recently served as senior producer for public affairs, a position he reached after working his way up through the ranks of producer and associate producer. He joined Turner Broadcasting in 1994 as a production assistant.

Watchulon counts among his honors 10 Southeastern Regional Emmy Awards and 25 Emmy nominations. He also produced, directed and edited a documentary special chosen for screening at the United Nations International World Oceans Conference. Watchulon's work in interact atlanta has helped that program earn the National Broadcast Association for Community Affairs' (NBACA) award for best public affairs program for three consecutive years. And his work on interact.america helped that program earn the award for best newsmagazine in the U.S. from American Women in Radio and Television (AWRT).

Watchulon holds a bachelor's degree in communications-radio/television/film from Temple University, where he graduated magna cum laude.

WTBS-17, known nationally as TBS Superstation, is Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.'s flagship network. TBS Superstation reaches 86.5 million households and is cable's most-watched network, a position it has held for 25 consecutive years. The Superstation offers high-profile original programming, blockbuster movies, popular series and sports. TBS Superstation's Web site is located at TBSsuperstation.com

Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., an AOL Time Warner company, is a major producer of news and entertainment product around the world and the leading provider of programming for the basic cable industry.

Watchulon is the son of Donald and Charlotte Watchulon of Dallas.
