passion and talent in playing ability. "He's just a great leader and personally a good kid to be around," says the coach. Coach McCue says Paul brings everybody's game to a new level. "They feed off him," says the coach about his players. "When he comes out ready to play, everyone else on the team is ready to play too."

Paul says he and his teammates are good friends and that they hang out together and get along well. Being close on a personal level, says Paul, really helps the team click better on the court.

"We're not having the best season so far," says the captain. "I'd really like to finish the season with a winning record and maybe make a run in the playoffs."

He feels the team improves a little more with each game and that he believes they could see the district finals.

Coach McCue knows he will lose a great talent and great person at the end of this season, but also knows another team will benefit. "Many local colleges are looking to recruit him," explains the coach. "And he's weighing his options right now."

Concluding his praise of Paul McCue rather perfectly, the coach says: "He's one of the best if not the best that I've ever coached in 20 years of basketball."

Former Lehman coach's squad meets his mentor .. and match

Staff report

WILKES-BARRE — After 13 years at Lake-Lehman, Ron Swingle Jr. got a taste of what it's like to be on the other side. Swingle is now the head coach at Meyers, and after his team faced off with the Black Knights last Saturday, he tasted what most of Lehman's opponents do — defeat.

This year's clash between perennial Class 2A powers lacked the suspense or impact the rivalry has had for more than 20 years as the reloaded Black Knights downed the rebuilding Mohawks 49-27.

Lehman coach Phil Lipski was not all that pleased with the result, despite improving to 8-0 overall and in the WVC. His main gripe was with wrestlers who were pinned by Meyers' top-three wrestlers: Wally Geiger (103), Joe Rovelli (152) and Carlo Mercadante (160).

Meyers (2-6, 2-5 WVC) jumped out to a 15-3 lead (the match started at 189), but Lehman went on a run similar to the one it used to beat Berwick on Tuesday.

Kelby Morgan started things off at 112 with a pin in 3:59, followed by falls from John Houssock (119, 4:54), Jon Schutz (125, 1:00), Andy Josuweit (130, 3:49) and Matt Dragon (135, 1:18). After the Black Knights' Derek White won by forfeit at 140, Jeremy Schutz gave Lehman a commanding 45-15 lead with a pin in 1:46 at 145.

ty, while Cale Charney led Sneaker King with 6 points, followed by Tom Runcavage with 4.

Morgan Stanley 57, The Fieldhouse 49

Mike Kravitsky scored 18 points and Joe Kaiser 6 as Morgan Stanley edged The Fieldhouse 57-49. Mark Covert led Fieldhouse with 21 points while Michael Tonart had 10.

Burger King 39, Gordon Insurance 31

Greg Jerzak had 10 points and Dan Jacobs 4 as Burger King remained in second place with a 39-31 win over Gordon Insurance. Stephen Zubko led Gordon with 25 points.

Renaissance Ctr. 56, CSI Int. 53

Robert Monk and Eric Tucker combined for 43 points as Renaissance Center for Plastic Surgery narrowly defeated CSI International 56-53. Kyle Williams added 3 points. Peter Filak led CSI with 23 points while Brandon delaney added 15.

After 10 weeks of play, Snyder & Clemente led the league with a record of 10-0. Burger King is second at 8-2, while Morgan Stanley is in third place with a record of 8-3. With a record of 7-4 Wilkes-Barre Pallet holds down fourth place. CSI International has one-game lead over Fieldhouse for fifth place. The top five teams at the end of the season will receive an opening round bye in the playoffs.

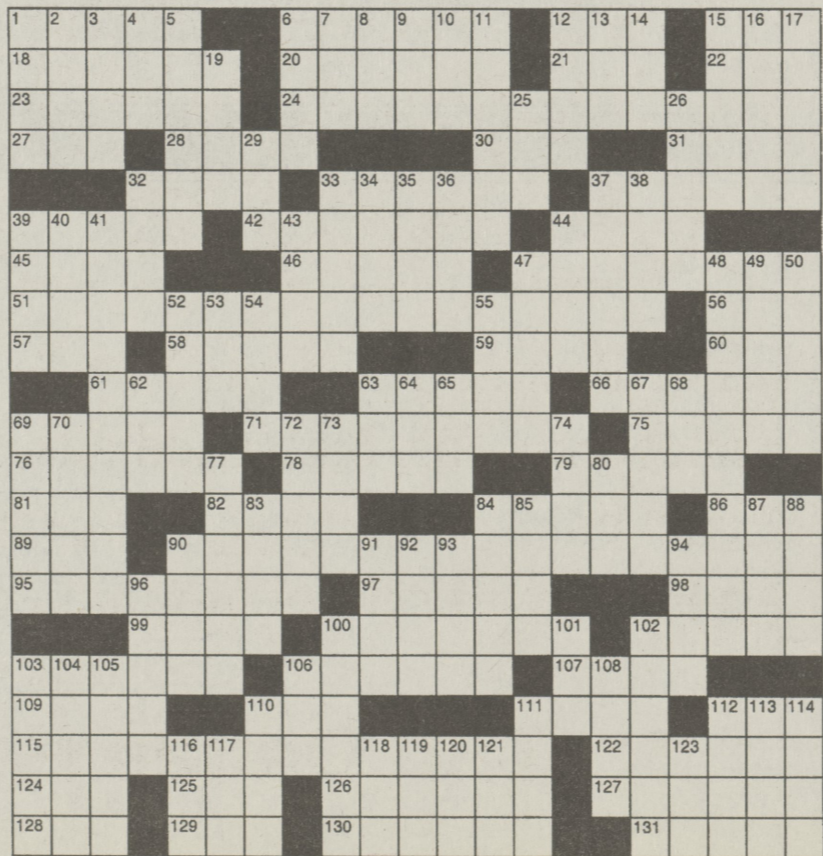

Saba named DII All-American

Former Dallas football standout and current Shipensburg University offensive tackle Jon Saba has been named an All-American in Division II Football. Saba, a senior captain, has also been named to the Second Team on the All Eastern Region Team and First Team All-Conference in the P.S.A.C.
