Cup race tightens

Dallas picked up a pair of victories in basketball this week to move closer to Lake-Lehman in the race for the Back Mountain Cup, sponsored by The Dallas Post. The Mountaineers now trail the Black Knights 8-3, with two more basketball games to be played to finish out the winter schedule. Only regular-season games between varsity teams are counted in the standings.

Bartolini aids Susquehanna hockey

Brittany Bartolini

Junior attack Brittany Bartolini of Dallas was a member of the Susquehanna University field hockey team that recently finished its season with an 17-4 overall record and ranked seventh in the final STX/NFHCA Division III Coaches Poll under 28-year head coach Connie Harnum.

The Crusaders, who finished second in the Commonwealth Conference with a 6-1 league mark, advanced to the NCAA Division III Tournament for the third time in program history before falling 1-0 to College of New Jersey in second-round action on November 16.

During the season, the Crusaders established single-season program records for victories (17), longest winning streak (15) and goals scored (66).

Bartolini played in three games this season, helping the Crusader offense that averaged 3.09 goals per game.

A marketing major, she is the daughter of Louis and Sharon Bartolini of Dallas.
