Stacey Wagner published in leading scientific journals

scientific journals is becoming a habit for Lafayette senior Stacey Wagner of Shavertown. A Trustee Scholarship recipient, she has co-authored three published articles in less than two years.

Selected from among Lafayette's top applicants, Trustee Scholarship recipients have distinguished themselves through exceptional academic achievement in high school. They receive from Lafayette an annual minimum scholarship of $7,500 (totaling $30,000 over four years) or a grant in the full amount of their demonstrated need if the need is more than $7,500.

Wagner's published work is based on research she completed as a participant in Lafayette's EXCEL Scholars Program, in which students collaborate close-Publishing articles in leading ly with faculty while earning a stipend.

Comparative Parasitology is the latest peer-reviewed journal to publish findings from one of Wagner's research projects. She collaborated on the article with Janna Pachuski, who graduated from Lafayette summa cum laude last May with a degree in biochemistry; Joseph Sherma, professor emeritus of chemistry; and Bernard Fried, professor emeritus of biology

Earlier this year, the same group published an article in Acta Chromatographica, and last year, Wagner teamed up with Fried, Sherma, and Yonghyun Kim '02, to publish an article in the November/December issue of Journal of Planar Chromatography-Modern TLC.

Practice SAT at Dallas

The Dallas High School Guidance Department in conjunction with the Princeton review is sponsoring the Practice S.A.T. on Saturday, February 15. This test will be given at 8 a.m. at the Dallas High School. Students will need to report to the high school by 7:45 a.m. This test is open to all area college bound students and is a great chance to take an actual S.A.T. without the worry of a poor score going on a transcript. In addition, each student who takes the test will receive a detailed printout of their strengths and weaknesses to help prepare them for the actual S.A.T. The cost for the test is $22 Checks should be made payable to Dallas High School and mailed to Dallas High School Guidance Dept., P.O. Box 2000, Dallas, PA 18612. Interested students should register early as the test always sells out. For additional information call 674-7218. The registration deadline for this test is Thursday, February 6. Please allow plenty of mailing time for the registration to reach us by the deadline.
