themselves at risk for an accident. Jolley said the passing lane is heavily used there because it comes off of a five to six mile stretch where there is no passing lane.

Kozick said there was a complaint that residents on Lake Way Drive have been refused trash pickup because of the dangerous turning conditions.

Kozick said the resident of Lake Way Drive was told the township would have to initiate the process before PennDOT could take any action.

Jolley said the area does not have a high frequency of accidents, but, he said, PennDOT looks at a variety of other factors when considering such a request.

Also during the meeting, Jason Jolley, a sophomore at Dallas High School and member of Boy Scout Troop 281, requested permission from the board to create a walking path at the Dallas Township Recreation Park. Jolley said creating the path is part of his effort to obtain the rank of Eagle Scout. The board approved the idea.

In other business
 • Kozick reported that in 2002, 26 homes were built in the township, at construction costs of $3,900,000.

• The board voted to advertise a bid for a new heating and air conditioning system for the township building.

• Christmas tree pickup for township residents will continue until January 24.
