GRAPHIC ARTIST
 The Times Leader is searching for a self-starter, eager to take readers beyond and behind the words of news stories with eye-catching and informative graphics. The basics: The right candidate should be a master of Freehand and or Illustrator, Photo Shop, Quark page design as well as savvy with internet and database research. And beyond: We're hoping to find a truly creative person who thinks way, way out of the box, but who also can work closely with in-the-box reporters, editors and designers to produce successful news and feature graphics - often under deadline pressure. We offer the right person a competitive salary and strong benefit package. Send resume, work samples and cover letter to:
