

Dancers on stage in Allentown

Two young local dancers from Bravo! Dance joined with the Repertory Dance Theatre, in Allentown, for seven performances of "The Nutcracker". Repertory Dance Theatre is a newly established professional company in the Lehigh valley. Auditions were held in New York City in the late summer. Six dancers were hired to form the nucleus of this company, which is augmented by students from the Haltzman School of Dance. Kira Szulborski, left, and Jaime Verazin auditioned and were chosen for several parts in "The Nutcracker". The Allentown Symphony Orchestra provided live music for the seven sold-out performances.

Kira is the daughter of Dr. Robert Szulborski and Dr. Debra Serfass of Dallas, and Jaime is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gary Verazin of Shavertown.

A word about the sponsors

Colarusso's. Opened in Dallas 1 year ago. 5 store locations. Colarusso's, famous for their fresh tomato pizza, white pizza, and Sicilian pizza, first opened its doors in 1969. After leaving pizza for the trucking business, Colarusso decided to try again and reopened the restaurant in Avoca in 1981. While growing up in the pizza business, the three sons and their nephew each opened a Colarusso's location and offer a full Italian menu, and a fresh, delicious cuisine across the Wyoming Valley.

Desi's Pizza - Opened Dallas location in 1989. 4 stores. The Desidario family opened The Leader Pizzeria, one of the first pizza parlors in Wilkes-Barre. After the flood, the pizzeria did not reopen, but the Desidario boys decided to continue the family tradition and reopen the Desi's restaurant in Wilkes-Barre and other locations. Desi's features the Giant Sheet Pizza, a full bar, and late night delivery.

Dino's - Shavertown store opened six weeks ago. 4 stores. The first Dino's, named after grandfather Leonardio, opened in the Wyoming Valley Mall 25 years ago near JC Penney. The restaurant later moved into the food court location, and since then over 20 Dino's restaurants have been franchised around the country. Dino's features a quick, casual atmosphere with a large menu to satisfy everyone's taste buds.

Dough Company - Opened in Dallas in 1991. 2 locations. The Dough Company, named for the "dough" found in their delicious family recipe of pizza and pasta, first opened in Wilkes-Barre in 1985. The restaurant, always striving for quality, tries to respond to its customers needs. The Dough Company features the popular low-fat cheese, whole wheat dough pizza, as well as a lactose intolerant cheese, in order to satisfy every customer's appetite.

Grotto - Harveys Lake location opened in 1953. 4 locations. Joe Paglianite opened Joe's Pizza on the lake in 1953 and later changed his name to Joe's Grotto Pizza. Grotto, defined as an underwater cave, was eventually shortened in the 1960s. Grotto Pizza, celebrating its 50th anniversary, has become synonymous with summers at Harveys Lake.

Hogan's Pizza and Subs - Opened in 1993. 1 location. Bob Hogan partnered with Pepperoni Brother's Johnny Ray 10 years ago to establish Hogan's Pizza and Subs. The restaurant, originally located across from the Burger King, moved to its present location five years ago. Hogan's features the "pizza king" Johnny Ray, offers delivery and take out, and includes a full service bar.

Pizza Perfect - Opened 28 years ago, 1 store. The nationally known Pizza Perfect, located on Carverton Road, offers Sicilian style pizza, which is shipped around the country or even overseas at least once or twice a week. Pizza Perfect, famous for its pizza and wings, does a good job of living up to its name.

Reds Subs and Pizza - Open 18 years. 1 location. Red's Subs and Pizza, started by Debbie and David 18 years ago, first opened in Lake Silkworth, moved to the corner of Route 29 and 118, operated out of a trailer for one year and moved to its present location 10 years ago. Red's Subs, named for Debbie's father, "Red," is famous for its pagash, offers homemade sauce, dough and cooked meals, and enjoys keeping their customers satisfied.

III Guys - Open 29 years. 4 locations. Mark Perelis, his older brother, and his brother-in-law started III Guys 29 years ago in Kingston. Through many years of experience and serving the community, the three guys discovered the secret to catering to the family. III Guys, offering a new sports bar motif atmosphere, makes delicious pizza and wings, offers homemade dinners and also features a sports bar at the Dallas location.
