Valley Tennis & Swim Club honored by USTA

The Valley Tennis & Swim Club, Inc. has been named the 2002 Club of the Year for the Eastern Pennsylvania District by the United State Tennis Association (USTA). The Trucksville club, which will again host Keystone State Games tennis action in July, received the prestigious award at a USTA banquet held recently.

The award was based on a combination of the club's facilities and membership growth. Recent improvements have led to a 25 percent increase in membership over the past three years.

The club also played host to the junior division tennis action of the Keystone State Games in July of 2002. The nomination for the USTA award came from officials of the Keystone State Games.

Individual, family and corporate memberships are available as are junior tennis memberships. For more information, contact Jack Monick at the Valley Tennis & Swim Club, Inc. at 696-1414.

Second row: Tabatha Sprau, Tracey Hudak, Meghan DeCesaris, Laura Matzel, Tara Bath.
Behind counter: Donna DeCesaris, Susan Boris and Susie Young of the parents association.

Champions, with rings to prove it

The Lake-Lehman field hockey parents association presented each of the senior members of this year's state championship team with commemorative rings. The group has held several fund raising events, but has yet to offset the entire expense. Anyone interested in contributing should contact the high school office.

Donna DeCesaris, association president, presented a ring to Sara Chmura.

Noon makes Big East all-academic team

Jennifer Noon of Shavertown, a junior field hockey player at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N.J., was recently chosen to the 2001-2002 Big East Academic All Star team.

Jenn was also presented with the 2002-Mission Statement Award-this award is voted on by the team and awarded to the member of the field hockey team who best approached and embodied the spirit of the teams' mission statement.

Jenn will also take on the role as a tri-captain.
