

CANDIDATE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jeffrey Box
Kingston Twp. Supervisor

Jeffrey K. Box, Shavertown has announced his candidacy for Kingston Township Supervisor in the May 20, primary election.

Box is the former Township Manager of Kingston Township, having served in that capacity for 13 years.

Jeff currently serves as Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Alliance, a regional economic development agency.

Jeff received Bachelors Degrees from Wilkes University in Business Administration, Political Science and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Marywood University.

Jeff is a former Club Scout Den Leader, current volunteer soccer coach with the Back Mountain Youth Soccer Association, and a Board member of Back Mountain Recreation, Incorporated. He resides in Shavertown with his wife Maire, son Christopher, and daughter Adrienne.

David Jenkins
Kingston Twp. Supervisor

David J. Jenkins, 370 Howell Road, Shavertown, has announced his candidacy for Kingston Township supervisor in the May 20th primary election.

Jenkins is a life long resident of Kingston Township. He has served on the Kingston Township Civil Service Commission for the past nine years. For the past three years he has served on the Kingston Township Zoning Hearing Board.

Jenkins is a graduate of Bloomsburg University and has had a career in the banking and investment fields for the past 30 years. He is a Vice President of PNC Investments. He is active in the Shavertown United Methodist Church, serving as Treasurer and a member of the Finance Committee.

Jenkins and his wife Kate, daughters Amanda, a junior at Penn State University, and Lindsay, a senior at Dallas Senior High School, live in Shavertown.

Sean McAndrew
Kingston Twp. Supervisor

Sean M. McAndrew announces his candidacy for Kingston Township Supervisor. McAndrew is a resident of Kingston Township and currently serves as a member of the Kingston Township Planning Commission.

McAndrew earned an Associates Degree in Science from Luzerne County Community College, a Bachelors Degree in Medical Records Administration from York College and a Masters in Health Administration Degree from the University of Scranton. He is a Registered Health Information Administrator through the American Health Information Management Association and is employed by Mercy Hospital in Scranton as the Director of Medical Record Services.

McAndrew resides in Kingston Township with his wife Lara and sons Connor and Kyle.

Diane Dwyer
Harveys Lake Borough Council

Diane Dwyer has announced her candidacy for Harveys Lake Borough Council as a Democrat in the upcoming May primary election. She is a graduate of College Misericordia, has graduate credits in Curriculum Development from Penn State University and upon her retirement from a life-long career as a high school teacher has continued her education in Paralegal Studies at Luzerne County Community College.

During her teaching career she was a Keyette Advisor for five years, a basketball coach for two years and a cheerleader advisor/coach for 14 years. She has served on curriculum committees, volunteered for many community events, and is presently a member and Parliamentarian for the Harveys Lake Greater Federation of Women's Club. She is a life member of the New Jersey Retired Teachers Association, the NJEA and the NEA.

From childhood to young adulthood she has spent every summer at Harveys Lake in her family summer cottage located on Carpenter Road. When she retired from teaching in Point Pleasant, New Jersey she decided to make Harveys Lake her home.

Mary Dysleski
Recorder of Deeds

Mary K. (Swenski) Dysleski will seek re-election to the Office of Recorder of Deeds. Over the past four years the Recorder of Deeds' Office has consistently been under budget and has reduced staff while recording increased numbers of documents and collecting fees for the county general fund, as well as fees for a number of other programs and county offices.

Dysleski holds a Masters of Public Administration from Marywood University and Bachelor's Degrees in Psychology and Criminal Justice from King's College. She holds a certification in Title Abstracting from the Pennsylvania Land Title Institute and worked as a title searcher for thirteen years prior to becoming Recorder of Deeds. She is a graduate of Leadership Wilkes-Barre and has completed courses in regional and urban planning. Dysleski serves on the Board of Directors of GRIT (Washington Square Apartments), is a member of the Kingston Township Long-Range Planning Committee, the Leadership Wilkes-Barre Advisory Council and a member of the Luzerne County Housing Trust. She is also a member of the Pennsylvania Recorder Deeds' Associations, the Pennsylvania Recorders' Improvement Association and the West Side Business and Professional Women's Association.

Dysleski resides in Kingston Township with her husband and daughter.

Harry Mattern
Luzerne County
Court of Common Pleas

Attorney Harry P. "Hap" Mattern of Kingston has announced his candidacy for Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County. He will be seeking both the Republican and Democratic nominations.

Mattern has practiced law in Luzerne County for the past twenty-seven years. In addition to his private law practice, he has served as Solicitor for the Municipality of Kingston for the past six years. He is a 1966 graduate of Central Catholic High School (now Bishop O'Reilly High School), a 1970 graduate of King's College and a 1975 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh School of Law.

He is also a military veteran having served on active duty in the United States Army from 1970-1972.

Mattern is married to the former Mary Franey of West Pittston. They are the parents of Tess Mattern, a freshman at Boston University, Nora Mattern, a senior at Wyoming Valley West High School, Kate Mattern, a sophomore at Wyoming Valley West High School, Libby Mattern, an eighth grade student at Wyoming Valley West Middle School and Neil Mattern, a fourth grade student at Chester Street Elementary school.

Mattern is admitted to practice in the United States Supreme Court, the United States Court of Military Appeals and all courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He is a member of the Luzerne County Bar Association and the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Attorney Mattern has also served as Solicitor for the Bear Creek Township Zoning Hearing Board and the Kingston Pool Authority.

Nanda Palissery
Luzerne County
Court of Common Pleas

Attorney Nanda Palissery announces he is seeking both the democratic and republican nominations for the Luzerne County Court of Common Pleas in the May 20, primary. He will be seeking to fill the vacancy which will be left by retiring Judge Patrick J. Toole, Jr.

Attorney Palissery is a partner in the general practice firm of Palissery and Brown in Kingston. He has extensive criminal and civil litigation experience in Federal, State and local courts. Prior to his legal practice, Palissery was a mechanical engineer with Westinghouse Corporation and an Instructor at Luzerne County Community College. He is a graduate of the Temple University of Law, Philadelphia, and Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas. He also attended Luzerne County Community College.

Palissery now resides in Dallas Township with his wife Diane and their three daughters, Gates, Mason, and Lexes.

Harry Skene
Luzerne County
Court of Common Pleas

West Pittston resident Harry W. Skene has declared his candidacy for Luzerne County Court of Common Pleas Judge. Skene has his own legal practice in Pittston and is solicitor for Luzerne County Controller Steve Flood. He has been practicing for 14 years and is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Attorney Skene is admitted to practice in Federal Courts in the Eastern and Middle Districts and United States Tax Court. He obtained his J.D. from the University of Toledo and his LLM from the University of Pennsylvania.

Lake Township
tax reminder

The 2003 County Municipal property and per-capita taxes were mailed on February 14. Any township resident who didn't receive a tax bill should notify Donna Kocher at 639-1522 immediately.

A reminder to residents - tax bills are mailed directly to the homeowner, and it is their responsibility to forward property tax bills (not per capita) immediately to the mortgage company or bank for payment.

The rebate value ends April 14 and face value period ends June 13. Residents should contact Donna Kocher with address changes, or any questions or concerns regarding their property/ per capita taxes.

Lake-Lehman
Taxpayers meeting

The Lake-Lehman School District taxpayers association will hold their regular monthly meeting April 3 in the meeting room of the Lehman Township Municipal building located on "Old Route 115." The meeting will start at 7 p.m.

Send The Dallas Post to a friend.

It makes a great gift. Call 675-5211 for information.

DEMOCRATS

Vote

Michael A. SAVOKINAS

Luzerne County SHERIFF

Paid for by the Committee to Elect Savokinas Sheriff

Attend the Taste of Home
Cooking School April 30, 2003
Get Your Tickets Today!

Purchase your tickets at the Times Leader 15 North Main Street, Wilkes-Barre or order tickets by phone M-F 9:00-5:00 / 570-829-7122

TIRAMISU PARFAIT

- TIRAMISU PARFAIT
- 1-1/2 cups hot water
 - 3-1/2 teaspoons instant coffee, decaffeinated, divided
 - 1/2 cup mascarpone cheese
 - 1 package (8 oz.) fat-free cream cheese
 - 1/8 cup dark brown sugar
 - 1 cup SPLENDA Granular
 - 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
 - 1 (16 oz.) Angel food cake, sugar free, purchased from bakery, cut in 1-inch pieces
 - 2 teaspoons cocoa, divided

Directions: Combine the Times Leader Taste of Home Cooking School and Genetti's Hotel and Convention Center on April 30, 2003. Stir in delicious on-stage recipe presentations. Mix together how to's, prizes, and a Taste of Home Recipe Collection. Sprinkle in a complimentary gift bag.

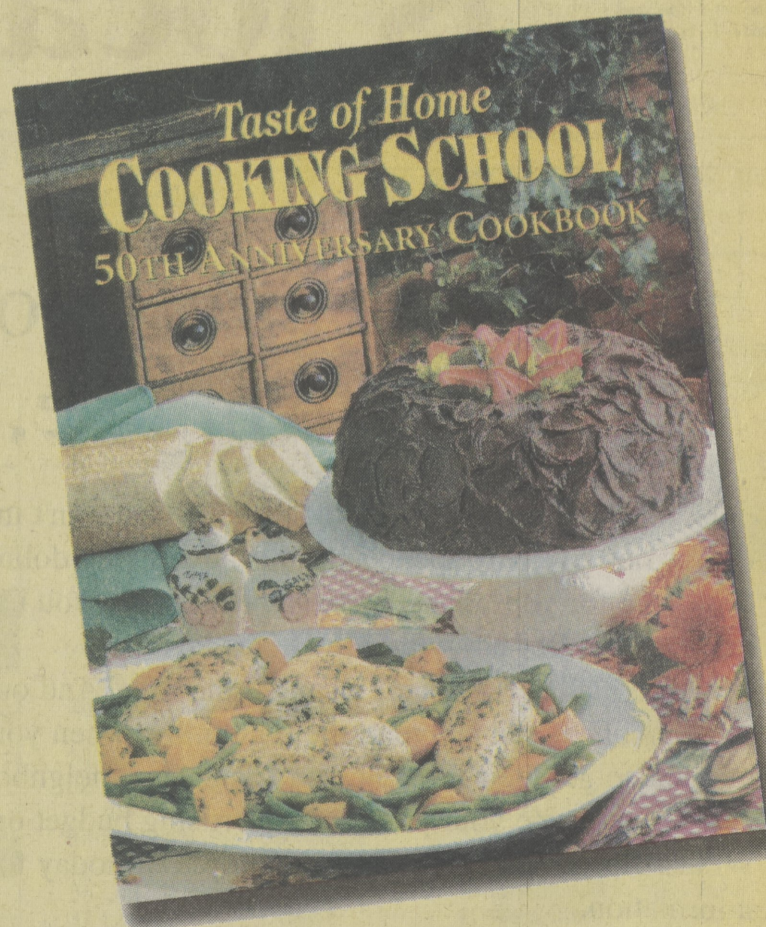

Yield: A fun night at the Times Leader Taste of Home Cooking School Event

Hurry to the Times Leader, 15 North Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA for tickets to this exciting event. Tickets are $10.00

Call 570-829-7122 for additional information about the Times Leader Taste of Home Cooking Show

Our Special
Gift to You

Receive a 288 page hardbound edition of A Taste of Home Cooking School's 50 Years of Cooking cookbook when you sign-up* for convenient 7-day home delivery of the Times Leader for 26 weeks for only $3.50 per week.

Read the Leader.
TIMES LEADER
www.TIMESLEADER.com

For quick service, call 829-5000 or toll free 1-800-252-5603 Monday through Friday 6:00 a.m.- 5:00 p.m., Saturday and Sunday 7:00 a.m.- 12:00 noon * Pre-Paid Orders Only

TIMES LEADER

Taste of Home

COOKING SCHOOL

Sponsored in part by:

weis / mr. Z's

LA-Z-BOY FURNITURE GALLERIES