Misericordia Players to present 'Godspell'

The College Misericordia Players will present Stephen Schwartz's musical "Godspell" on April 4 and 5 at 8 p.m. and April 6 at 2 p.m. Performances will be held in College Misericordia's Walsh Auditorium. Tickets are available at the door at a cost of $5 for general admission and $3 for students and senior citizens.

Godspell is an at once a comic, dramatic, and moving retelling of parables from the Gospels and the Passion of Christ. The setting is meant to be gritty and urban, and the context of the stories made modern and relevant — as though Matthew, Mark, Luke and John had been writing in the 21st century rather than in the first. Songs, games, and gags of many genres are woven together to create a tapestry of timeless morals.

The cast includes Kyle Barnett as Jesus, with Mary Beth Dougherty, Sarah Fisher, Meghan Dwyer, CM psychology professor Charles "Dr. Chuck" LaJeunesse, Justin Lukasewicz, Michelle Markellos, Luis Martinez, Mary Smea and Christina Stango. The cast is under the direction of Amy Lynch-Binieck with Russ Hastings serving as stage manager. The crew consists of Don Hopkins, technical director; Angela Kelly in public relations, and prop chief Heather Jones.
