to any orange or red areas. Still at issue is the four-day, three-night senior trip to Washington D.C. Roberts said no decision has formally been made on the trip that is a tradition in the district.

"They've been doing the Washington trip here as long as I can remember. It precedes me and I've been here 32 years," he said.

Roberts, who said he has grave reservations about sending students to the capital, said the issue will be brought up at the April school board meeting for discussion.

Other trips to be changed include an elementary level trip to Philadelphia and a 10th grade trip to Baltimore.

Dallas Borough Easter Egg Hunt

Dallas Borough announces their 4th annual Egg Hunt scheduled for Saturday, April 12 at 11 a.m. Rain date will be April 19.

Residents of Dallas Borough between the ages of one and ten years old are invited to participate in the egg hunt to be held at the Dallas Recreation Center on Burndale Road.

Children will be divided into four age groups for the event. Ages, one, two, and three and ages, four thru six will hunt in the tennis court area and youth ages seven thru ten will hunt in the park area.

Lake-Lehman students walk off with History Day awards

Students from Lake-Lehman High School took home 11 awards from the Regional History Day competition, held March 29 on the campus of Penn State Wilkes-Barre. Lake-Lehman students won six first places in individual and group competition, and swept the senior division of the group exhibits category. Eight high schools from northeastern Pennsylvania were represented at the event, in junior and senior divisions. Lake-Lehman did not enter the junior division.

Winners of the top three awards will go on to state competition at Penn State University Park, May 14-15.

The national contest will be held June 15-19 at the University of Maryland.

The theme of this year's competition is "Rights and Responsibility in History."
