Special screening of 'Stevie' Saturday

Robert May, president of SenArt Films, a film production company with offices in Dallas and New York City, will host a special screening of the award winning documentary, "Stevie," at the F.M. Kirby Center for the Performing Arts on Saturday, April 12 at 6 p.m. Director Steve James will be in attendance and will facilitate a question and answer session with the audience immediately following the screening.

Proceeds from the event will benefit Big Brothers Big Sisters of The Bridge. Tickets for the screening are $12 and can be purchased by visiting or calling the F.M. Kirby Center box office at 826-1100. Tickets can also be purchased by contacting Big Brothers Big Sisters of The Bridge at 824-8756.

Called "Impossible to forget," by Roger Ebert of the Chicago Sun Times and "A remarkable journey! Thoroughly engrossing and unexpectedly affecting" by Michael Rechtshaffen of the Hollywood Reporter, "Stevie" is ultimately a film about the humanity and compassion that can be found in even the darkest and most unlikely places.

"This is a film that everyone should see. There are many children like Stevie Northeast Pennsylvania who need the help and support of the community," said Ron Evans, program director, Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Bridge. "All too often children fall through the cracks and are lost in the system."

Steve James, Academy Award nominated director of the widely acclaimed documentary "Hoop Dreams", creates a moving film about his relationship with an adult suffering the after effects of extreme childhood neglect. Highly-praised upon its world premiere at the Toronto Film Festival, the film went on to win the grand prize at the International Documentary Film Festival in Amsterdam and the Excellence in Cinematography Award for photography in the documentary competition at the recent Sundance Film Festival.

A production of SenArt Films and Kartemquin Films and a Lions Gate Films Release, "Stevie" opened in New York and Los Angeles on March 29.

Tell the Back Mountain about your town

The Dallas Post is seeking correspondents who want to make sure their neighbors know what's going on in their town. The news could be about a church supper, a significant birthday, a special garden, or who knows??

You don't need to be a seasoned journalist, just someone who can find interesting material, write clearly and meet deadlines. If you can take a decent photo, that's a plus! And if you're interested, municipal meetings could be part of the deal.

If you think this might be a good spot for you, stop by our office and fill out an application, or drop us a note either by mail or — even better — e-mail.
