Monday could go down as the day when the Back Mountain Cup race was decided. Or perhaps it was Wednesday.

Before Monday, Lake-Lehman led the standings with a 9-5 record against their Back Mountain rivals going into Monday's triple header. But the Dallas Mountaineers responded to the challenge, sweeping contests in baseball, softball and tennis to get within a game of tying the standings.

The girls soccer squads met Wednesday, in a game that took place too late to be included in this issue, so the standings are either tied or Dallas trails by two, with four games yet to go. The next meeting will be under the lights next Thursday

The Black Knights won the first seven events last fall before Dallas got its first victory in the Old Shoe football game. After losing in wrestling, the Mountaineers reeled off four consecutive victories in basketball to make the race competitive.
