Tell the Back Mountain about your town

The Dallas Post is seeking correspondents who want to make sure their neighbors know what's going on in their town. The news could be about a church supper, a significant birthday, a special garden, or who knows??

You don't need to be a seasoned journalist, just someone who can find interesting material, write clearly and meet deadlines. If you can take a decent photo, that's a plus! And if you're interested, municipal meetings could be part of the deal.

If you think this might be a good spot for you, stop by our office and fill out an application, or drop us a note either by mail or — even better — e-mail.
