

Gate of Heaven students receive Bishop's Youth Lay Ministry Awards

The Most Reverend James C. Timlin, D.D. (Bishop of Scranton) has presented the Bishop's Lay Ministry Award to the following Gate of Heaven School students: Kathleen Garrity, Sean McNealis, Katie Goode, and Kevin Gilbertson. Kathleen Paley, Christopher Taylor, Susan Krogulski and Kristine Stanks, also GOH students, were award recipients from St. Therese's Parish, Shavertown.

The eighth graders have a wide range of interests, but are successful at school and are active in their parishes. After graduation, Garrity, McNealis, Goode, Gilbertson, Paley, and Krogulski plan to attend Bishop O'Reilly High school in Kingston; Taylor and Stanks are headed for Bishop Hoban High School in Wilkes-Barre.

Jennifer Boland wins GOH spelling bee

Gate of Heaven School held its preliminary round of the Diocesan Spelling Bee on April 16 in the school gymnasium. Approximately 75 students from the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades participated under the direction of Mrs. Anne Lohin, 4-213 homeroom teacher. Mrs. Nedda Cashore, Mrs. Lynn Jones, and Mrs. Dianne Ruch served as judges.

After two hours of stiff competition, Jennifer Boland emerged as champion with the correct spelling of the words "adequate" and "abbreviate." Fifth grader Gabrielle Olshemski finished as runner-up. Boland will now advance to the Diocesan Spelling Bee to be held on May 9 at Wyoming area Catholic School in Exeter.

Computer lessons at Dallas in May

The Dallas School District will be offering a series of computer sessions on Wednesdays during the month of May. There will be a nominal fee of $5 for each class.

Four sessions are being offered this month: An Introductory Road Map of the Internet Superhighway; Making Address Labels with Microsoft Word; Hunt and Peck or Touch Keyboarding? (This workshop will show the basics of the computer keyboard and give time to practice the new skills.); Budget...?(See how to set up a spreadsheet that will calculate assets and liabilities.)

To register, mail a check payable to the Dallas School District along with a statement clarifying which class will be attended to:
