Business Fair and Card Exchange

Members of the Back Mountain Business and Professional Association held their third Business Fair and Card Exchange last week at Stax & Co. restaurant, in the Twin Stacks Center in Dallas.

Thirty exhibitors filled the National Room and spilled down an adjacent hallway, demonstrating their products and services to hundreds of visitors. Shown in the photos, clockwise from top left: Jennifer Cicierski of Shapes gave a relaxing massage to Joyce Jobson; Yvonne Kelly looked over the table of Ocean Lotus Farm, a new enterprise operated by Yuh-Hai Wang and Hui-Lien Chen; Ron Sikorsky of Touch of Class Caterers at Irem Temple Country Club dished out some soup to Dave Weidner; Dan Jones described the services of his Northeast Medical Resources to Karen Martin; Eydie Piatt of Chestnut Ridge Communication Services, handed a picture phone to Sally Sprankle; Diane Dreier helped Amy Maseychik look up a car on the Dreier Auto Sales web site.
